GERHARDT IS BOWSHER WINNER

CONTROL CAR of the world's largest vehicle on rubber is shown at top. Below, the complete "train," with low pressure tires 88 inches in diameter. It's the Sno-Freighter, built by the R. G. LeTourneau company in Longview, Tex., for use on frozen trails of inland Alaska. The Sno-Freighter is 274 feet long, coupled in six sections so it can turn corners. It can carry 10 freight vans piggy-back. Diesel-electric generating sets on the power-control car supply electric power to the 24 electric wheels which actually drive the vehicle. Each wheel has an electric motor.

Ten Reasons Listed To Support Need Of CD Siren In Circleville

Ten important reasons why Circleville should have an air raid siren were underlined today by Bernard Tait, Civil Defense director for this district.

Tait has expressed the fear that $500 the city set aside for CD purposes this year will be withdrawn because the county, apparently, is not going to appropriate any such amount for 1955. More than half the city's new appropriation, Tait explained, is needed to pay the balance on a big siren already ordered.

State and federal CD agencies are sharing in the cost of the equipment. In stressing the city's strategic importance during early stages of the siren deal, federal CD officials in Washington were told that:

1. Circleville is located 25 miles from Columbus, a critical target area.
2. The city is eight miles from Lockbourne Air Force Base. Much Air Force personnel resides in the city of Circleville.
3. Dupont and General Electric Company have factories located here and are producing critical material.
4. Other plants are expected to locate in Circleville because of its strategic value to this area.
5. Norfolk and Western Railroad, and Chesapeake and Ohio route all coal from Southern Ohio and West Virginia through Circleville.
6. Container Corp. of America has a large plant here.
7. Eshelman's Milling Co., one of the largest grain mills in Southern Ohio, is located here, in addition to the Crites Milling Co.
8. Circleville's proximity to the critical target area makes it imperative that adequate and timely warning be provided in view of the support role which Circleville will be called upon to perform should the critical target area of Columbus be hit and in need of assistance.

9. Three canning factories are located in Circleville, which makes it a center for providing facilities for canning food stuffs. In addition, the dairy industry is a very predominant industry for this area, furnishing such products to Central Ohio.

10. Five grade schools and one high school serve the city and county of Pickaway within the city of Circleville proper.

Italy Gives OK To Rearming Of Germany

ROME (AP)—Italy lined up today with the nations backing West Germany rearmament as her Senate approved the Paris accords over bitter Communist opposition.

After two weeks' heated debate climaxed by Red street riots, the Senate OK'd the agreements last night by a vote of 139-82, making Italy the eighth of the 15 nations involved to complete parliamentary action. Italy's lower House approved the pact last December and they now only need final signing by President Luigi Einaudi.

Riot police broke up one demonstration near the Senate building and headed off others in many parts of the city. More than 500 persons were taken into custody, including Communist Deputy Carlo Capponi who had joined one shouting mob. Capponi was released as soon afterward.

Last night's action was the strongest approval Premier Mario Scelba has won in the Senate on a major bill since he took office 13 months ago.

Scelba who will leave in about 10 days for visits to the United States and Canada, said:

"The vote of the Italian Parliament, after the ones in London and Bonn, represent the most important act in the history of European unity. The unity of the free world is the strongest defense of peace."

Card Delivered 38 Years Late

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—A postcard mailed from the Camp Chase postoffice in Columbus July 10, 1916, arrived at the nearby South Vienna postoffice this week.

The woman to whom it was addressed, Mrs. L. M. Finch, died about 20 years ago, postmaster Robert Clark was told. Clark said the card with a picture of Niagara Falls on the face was signed with the initials "W. H. M." and bore no notations to indicate it had been routed anywhere except to his post-office.

Weight Of New Irrigation Water Said Cause Of 200 'Earthquakes' In Columbia River Basin

OTHELLO, Wash. (AP)—Shifting and swaying to the accompaniment of skin-prickling noises, a large farmland area near this eastern Washington community is being pushed around by the unfamiliar weight of irrigation waters.

To the residents, subjected to nearly 200 quakes since Jan. 1, it is at least disconcerting to see farm towers sway, walls crack and household pictures shift.

But geologists say the Columbia Basin hula is nothing to be concerned about—this just isn't an earthquake zone.

Fred Jones, with the U. S. Geological Survey Office in Spokane, and other geologists say subterranean rock is shifting because of the weight of new irrigation.

The ground water volume has been rising steadily since this vast area, formerly an arid desert region, was opened to farming by giant irrigation projects.

Mrs. Iver Dougherty, whose ranch apparently is situated in the center of the quake zone, said she was so frightened at first by the sharp shocks which began about the first of the year that she was "ready to pack up and leave."

She calmed down, however, and now is keeping a diary of the land's rumbling fidgets for the Geological Survey. She has recorded 94 tremors since Jan. 18. An earlier report to the University of Washington showed "about the same number for the period from Jan. 1 to 18."

Mrs. Dougherty said the most severe shocks have been comparable to the effect of "dropping a big boulder in the middle of the house."

"The initial shocks generally are very strong," she said, "and you can hear them very plainly."

The four Dougherty children share their mother's disquiet, with three of them once scampering from their bedroom and the fourth, a 1-year-old daughter, clinging anxiously to her mother.

"We thought it was blasting or jets breaking the sound barrier, when the quakes first started," Mrs. Dougherty recalls. "Later they became more violent and frequent. We have had as many as 13 in one hour."

That log she keeps still is growing, with the latest entry at 6:59 p. m. Thursday and little to indicate it will be the last.

Deputy Given Life In Prison

Phenix City Officer Said Guilty In Slaying

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—With ex-Chief Deputy Sheriff Albert Fuller sentenced to life in prison, the state moved swiftly today to bring another defendant to trial for the murder of Phenix City vice foe A. L. Patterson.

Prosecutor Cecil Deason said Arch Ferrell, who was prosecuting attorney in Phenix City during the days when Fuller was chief deputy in the vice-infested town, probably will be tried in about two weeks.

Fuller was held in the Jefferson County jail atop the courthouse where he was tried.

Chief Defense Atty. Roderick Beddow said he will appeal to the state supreme court and at the same time file a motion for a new trial.

The 35-year-old 200-pound Fuller took the life imprisonment verdict calmly but his attorney said the veteran law officer was "dumbfounded" at the outcome of the 25-day trial.

Fuller's pretty blonde wife, Avon was "heartbroken and in a state of shock," Beddow said. The Fullers have no children.

Damage By Storm Runs In Millions

Central Great Plains Hardest Hit; Colorado Wheat Loss: $50 Million

By The Associated Press
Storms which struck devastating blows in wide areas of the country yesterday, causing millions of dollars damage to property and crops, abated today. The stormy weather was blamed for at least eight deaths and injured a score of persons.

The winter season's most severe dust storms in the Southern and Central Great Plains appeared to have caused the heaviest monetary damage. In Colorado alone, the loss of half of the state's three million acres of winter wheat was estimated at $50 million.

The dust area early today extended across Kansas into southern Missouri and northern Arkansas but the Weather Bureau reported there was no blowing dust.

The tornadoes, wind storms and thunderstorms which struck across Midwest and Eastern areas yesterday caused extensive property damage.

Communities in east central Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania suffered heaviest property losses. Winds were clocked at 92 m.p.h. in much of the area.

THE PROPERTY damage in Pennsylvania was estimated at more than $1 million. It was expected to total more than $1 million in Ohio and nearly $1 million in Indiana.

A U. S. Steel ore bridge in Rankin, Pa., near Pittsburgh, buckled from the winds, causing an estimated $1 million damage.

Lightning struck a transformer in Union City, Ind., on the Indiana-Ohio line, starting a fire that caused damages of $500,000 in the heart of the city.

Although heavy rains pelted the Ohio River Valley basin, the U. S. Weather Bureau at Pittsburgh saw no new threats of flood from the big Ohio River. The river on its worst rampage in seven years, appeared to have moderated.

A few thunderstorms were reported early today over the east central part of the country and in the central Missouri Valley. Light rain also continued over western Washington and Oregon while showers and snow flurries were reported along the western slopes of the Rockies.

Mostly fair or partly cloudy weather was reported in other sections of the country.

Below freezing extended from northern New England westward across the northern Great Lakes and into North Dakota, Montana and most of Wyoming.

No further major destruction was foreseen as the flood waters, worst since April, 1948, drifted toward Cairo, Ill., where the Ohio dumps into the Mississippi River.

The Louisville district of the U. S. Corps of Engineers predicted crests today at Tell City, Cannelton, and Evansville, Ind., and at Hawesville, Owensboro, and Henderson, Ky.

The Weather Bureau said the river would be back within its banks by Tuesday.

No rains of any consequence are forecast the next day or two, so the fall should be rapid.

The crest at Louisville reached 36.8 feet, 8.8 feet above flood level. Col. W. D. Milne, district engineer, said the preliminary damage from Madison, Ind., to Cloverport, Ky., was $1 million.

He said the damage was to riverfront buildings, houses and personal property, but very little to land since no crops were in.

'Critical' Label Sought For Area

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Henderson (R-Ohio) has asked the Labor Department to determine whether all seven counties in Ohio's 15th Congressional District should be classified as "critical unemployment" sectors.

Four of the counties in Henderson's district already have been placed in that category. They are Guernsey, Noble, Monroe and Washington counties.

In a letter to the department yesterday, Henderson asked whether the remaining counties—Perry, Morgan and Muskingum—should not also be placed in the "critical unemployment" category.

That designation means an area has at least six per cent of its labor force out of work.

Stock Market Break Worst In 15 Years

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market tumbled off its record high perch this week in a resounding break—the worst in 15 years.

The market has not taken such a tumble since the week of May 18, 1940, when the German armies invaded the Low Lands in their march on Paris.

All of the key stocks were involved in the slide. Little fellows went along down, too.

Selling pressures were unrelenting except for occasional rallies that served to underline what brokers called the market's basic strength.

What the market's weakness was, none in Wall Street could agree. Nor in Washington, for that matter, where the Senate Banking Committee was conducting a study of market conditions.

In any event, the Associated Press average of 60 stocks plunged $7.20 on the week. The shock of the Germans marching across Europe in the early summer of 1940 knocked the AP average down $8.10 during the week ending May 18.

The general barometer of business conditions this week pointed to fair weather for the steel industry, for the booming automobile business, for the railroads and for other bulwarks of the nation's economy.

The stock market, however, was ailing. Last week the market advanced with the best showing of the last four months, and it reached a new high mark at the end of the week. Then came this week's selling intensity.

GASCO FOOD INSTITUTE Manager Jay Parker is shown above demonstrating how to close in on a batch of "Blue Flame" sandwiches, the recipe for which will be a feature at the second session of this year's show. The food institute, sponsored by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. and The Circleville Herald, will be staged Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week in Memorial Hall. The annual program is free to the public.

Economic Report Points Up Democrat Issue For 1956

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz.) said today Democrats evidently intend to pitch their 1956 presidential campaign primarily on economic issues.

Yes, said Sen. Kilgore (D-WVa.), they certainly do. And he added he doesn't believe the Republicans will be happy with the outcome.

The two senators commented as a back stage squabble brewed among members of the Senate House Economic Committee over a report on the nation's economic health.

Members reached agreement on the report only after outnumbered Republicans had won elimination of some criticism of President Eisenhower's policies and some pessimistic forecasts contained in an original draft by Chairman Douglas (D-Ill.).

Goldwater, a member of the committee who also heads the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said he couldn't comment on the report in advance of its official issuance this weekend.

But the Arizona senator said it seems plain to him that Democrats intend to pose next year as champions of the "little fellow" while attacking Eisenhower policies as favoring "big business."

KILGORE SAID he thinks the Democrats will have an issue in economic conditions. He said reaction to their current proposal in the Senate to cut taxes of low income families while repealing some business benefits has "demonstrated the popularity of our stand."

The Economic Committee agreed on a report saying there was an "economic recession" last year, as the Democrats contended, and that "it is not enough just to maintain present levels of employment and production."

By signing the two-party report, Republicans agreed, among other things, that:

- (1) employment and production have regained only about half the ground lost and "unemployment has receded one-third," and (2) the "decline in total net farm income is expected to continue, but more slowly."

Calling for an increase in public works, the bipartisan report says any federal share "should be directed from the Treasury, rather than from indirect authorities which circumvent the public debt limit."

This runs counter to the administration plan to help finance a huge highway building program through bond issues.

Man Arrested In Lima For Italy Slaying

CLEVELAND (AP)—Ernest Navarre, attorney for a man arrested in Lima, said today he would demand the government prove his client is the person wanted in Italy for a 1922 ambush murder.

U. S. Marshal Xavier North arrested and identified him as Tommaso Argento, 59, convicted in absentia in the killing of Giovanni Camilleri at Ippolito on the island of Sicily.

Donald F. Miller, chief of Lima police, said the man was picked up during a disturbance at a tavern. The chief said he identified him as Argento through a photograph and that the man had admitted that was his name. He had been using a different name in Lima.

The arrest was on a federal warrant issued by the U. S. government at the request of the Italian government. The Italian government tried Argento and 11 others for the murder in 1931 although he was not present at the trial. Argento and one other person were sentenced to life in prison.

Camilleri was described as a land owner who resisted a "gangster system" on the island. He was killed June 3, 1922.

The Italians seek to extradite the arrested man.

Ohio Airman's Slayer Near Trial

MEMPHIS (AP)—Gerald Rosenthal, 22, of New York City will go on trial Monday charged with first degree murder. He is the first of two airmen to be tried in the death of Richard G. Carter, 31, of Cambridge, Ohio, who had been stationed at the same air base with Rosenthal.

Last Dec. 4, a few days after his discharge from the Air Force, Carter was killed in a Memphis hotel. He was en route home with Christmas presents for his family.

Michael Tuzzo, 20, of Jersey City, N. J., will be tried later. Also stationed at Greenville, Miss., Air Force Base, Tuzzo is charged with being an accessory.

Eight Coaches List Him Tops In County Vote

Atlanta First School To Receive Trophy Twice Since Start

By DAVE BROWN
Herald Sports Editor

Harold Harmon Gerhardt, tall and slim senior from Atlanta, is the 1955 winner of the Bowsher Memorial Basketball Trophy, sponsored by The Circleville Herald.

Eight of the 10 coaches who voted placed Gerhardt's name first. One coach listed him second while another marked him sixth. (No ballot was received from Scioto.)

Only two other players received first place votes. One went to Dale Pettibone, Ashville's fine playmaker, who was second in the voting. Another went to Virgil Anderson, of Williamsport.

The trophy will be presented at the athletic banquet to be held soon at Atlanta. This is the first time that the trophy has gone to the same school more than once in eight years. Harley Evans won it in 1952 for the Perry Township School.

THE AWARD is given on the basis of play in the county tournament. The trophy is given in memory of Bob Bowsher, well-known Circleville High School athlete, who was killed during World War II.

Scoring for the coveted recognition went this way: 10 points for a first place vote, nine points for second, eight points for third, etc.

Gerhardt received a total of 94 out of a possible 100 votes. Pettibone got 59 points for runner-up honors.

In third place was Gene Stonerock, Williamsport's high scoring forward. He was given 48 points.

Close behind in fourth place was Scioto's Pete Martin with 41 points. Jeff Sturgell, Ashville's classy forward who collided with Martin in the finals and was knocked out, received 34 points for fifth place.

OF THE 24 BOYS nominated, Scioto Township School topped the number of nominations with four. Ashville, Atlanta, Williamsport and Pickaway each had three boys listed.

Gerhardt also won two other honors. He took the county scoring title and in addition was named to the all-county team at center, for which he received the greatest number of votes. (See sports page)

The quiet, dark haired center has compiled a record of 1,507 points in his four years of high school play. In 87 games, his average was 17.3 points a game.

Deputy Given Life In Prison

Phenix City Officer Said Guilty In Slaying

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—With ex-Chief Deputy Sheriff Albert Fuller sentenced to life in prison, the state moved swiftly today to bring another defendant to trial for the murder of Phenix City vice foe A. L. Patterson.

Prosecutor Cecil Deason said Arch Ferrell, who was prosecuting attorney in Phenix City during the days when Fuller was chief deputy in the vice-infested town, probably will be tried in about two weeks.

Fuller was held in the Jefferson County jail atop the courthouse where he was tried.

Chief Defense Atty. Roderick Beddow said he will appeal to the state supreme court and at the same time file a motion for a new trial.

The 35-year-old 200-pound Fuller took the life imprisonment verdict calmly but his attorney said the veteran law officer was "dumb-founded" at the outcome of the 25-day trial.

Fuller's pretty blonde wife, Avon was "heartbroken and in a state of shock," Beddow said. The Fullers have no children.

MORE THAN 40 sheriffs officers and Birmingham city policemen guarded the courtroom against any demonstration when the jury gave its verdict 22 hours 11 minutes after it had received the case.

Fuller is the first of three defendants to be tried for the slaying of the Democratic nominee for attorney general who had sworn to rid Phenix City of the racketeering that had flourished there for decades.

Patterson, a former member of the state senate, won the nomination in the Democratic primary runoff June 1. He was shot to death outside his Phenix City law office 17 days later.

Indicted with Fuller and Ferrell was former Atty. Gen. Si Garrett, the man Patterson would have succeeded as the state's chief legal officer. Garrett now is a mental patient in a Texas hospital.

Ohio River's Flood Moves Downstream

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The Ohio River, its flooding fury almost spent, was expected to crest today from two to eight feet above flood level at several points downstream from Louisville.

Meanwhile, upstream to Pittsburgh, a major cleanup job had begun at points where the ram-paging river inflicted damage estimated at $13 million and left thousands homeless.

No further major destruction was foreseen as the flood waters, worst since April, 1948, drifted toward Cairo, Ill., where the Ohio dumps into the Mississippi River.

The Louisville district of the U. S. Corps of Engineers predicted crests today at Tell City, Cannelton, and Evansville, Ind., and at Hawesville, Owensboro, and Henderson, Ky.

The Weather Bureau said the river would be back within its banks by Tuesday.

No rains of any consequence are forecast the next day or two, so the fall should be rapid.

The crest at Louisville reached 36.8 feet, 8.8 feet above flood level. Col. W. D. Milne, district engineer, said the preliminary damage from Madison, Ind., to Cloverport, Ky., was $1 million.

He said the damage was to river-front buildings, houses and personal property, but very little to land since no crops were in.

Stock Market Break Worst In 15 Years

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market tumbled off its record high perch this week in a resounding break—the worst in 15 years.

The market has not taken such a tumble since the week of May 18, 1940, when the German armies invaded the Low Lands in their march on Paris.

All of the key stocks were involved in the slide. Little fellows went along down, too.

Selling pressures were unrelenting except for occasional rallies that served to underline what brokers called the market's basic strength.

What the market's weakness was, none in Wall Street could agree. Nor in Washington, for that matter, where the Senate Banking Committee was conducting a study of market conditions.

In any event, the Associated Press average of 60 stocks plunged $7.20 on the week. The shock of the Germans marching across Europe in the early summer of 1940 knocked the AP average down $8.10 during the week ending May 18.

The general barometer of business conditions this week pointed to fair weather for the steel industry, for the booming automobile business, for the railroads and for other bulwarks of the nation's economy.

The stock market, however, was ailing. Last week the market advanced with the best showing of the last four months, and it reached a new high mark at the end of the week. Then came this week's selling intensity.

GASCO FOOD INSTITUTE Manager Jay Parker is shown above demonstrating how to close in on a batch of "Blue Flame" sandwiches, the recipe for which will be a feature at the second session of this year's show. The food institute, sponsored by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. and The Circleville Herald, will be staged Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week in Memorial Hall. The annual program is free to the public.

Economic Report Points Up Democrat Issue For 1956

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz.) said today Democrats evidently intend to pitch their 1956 presidential campaign primarily on economic issues.

Yes, said Sen. Kilgore (D-WVa.), they certainly do. And he added he doesn't believe the Republicans will be happy with the outcome.

The two senators commented as a back stage squabble brewed among members of the Senate-House Economic Committee over a report on the nation's economic health.

Members reached agreement on the report only after outnumbered Republicans had won elimination of some criticism of President Eisenhower's policies and some pessimistic forecasts contained in an original drafted by Chairman Douglas (D-Ill.).

Goldwater, a member of the committee who also heads the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said he couldn't comment on the report in advance of its official issuance this weekend.

But the Arizona senator said it seems plain to him that Democrats intend to pose next year as champions of the "little fellow" while attacking Eisenhower policies as favoring "big business."

KILGORE SAID he thinks the Democrats will have an issue in economic conditions. He said reaction to their current proposal in the Senate to cut taxes of low income families while repealing some business benefits has "demonstrated the popularity of our stand."

The Economic Committee agreed on a report saying there was an "economic recession" last year, as the Democrats contended, and that "it is not enough just to maintain present levels of employment and production."

By signing the two-party report, Republicans agreed, among other things, that:

(1) employment and production have regained only about half the ground lost and "unemployment has receded one-third," and (2) the "decline in total net farm income is expected to continue, but more slowly."

Calling for an increase in public works, the bipartisan report says any federal share "should be directed from the Treasury, rather than from indirect authorities which circumvent the public debt limit."

This runs counter to the administration plan to help finance a huge highway building program through bond issues.

Springfield Lad Is Electrocuted

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Ten-year-old Clarence Richard Hamilton was electrocuted while attempting to replace a light bulb in a socket at his home in nearby South Charleston yesterday.

Coroner Austin Richards said the boy's shoes and other clothing were wet and the floor of the house was damp as a result of rain which had leaked into the home.

Ohio Airmen's Slayer Near Trial

MEMPHIS (AP)—Gerald Rosenthal, 22, of New York City will go on trial Monday charged with first degree murder. He is the first of two airmen to be tried in the death of Richard G. Carter, 31, of Cambridge, Ohio, who had been stationed at the same air base with Rosenthal.

Last Dec. 4, a few days after his discharge from the Air Force, Carter was killed in a Memphis hotel. He was en route home with Christmas presents for his family.

Michael Tuzo, 20, of Jersey City, N. J., will be tried later. Also stationed at Greenville, Miss., Air Force Base, Tuzo is charged with being an accessory.

He gave this reason for failing to return the pretzels or the proceeds from their sale: "I can't resist pinball machines once I start playing them."

He was sentenced to 90 days in the workhouse, fined $300.

Pretzel Stealer Tells Of 'Urge'

CINCINNATI (AP)—Robert Stine, 27, was convicted yesterday in police court of embezzling 250 pretzels.

He gave this reason for failing to return the pretzels or the proceeds from their sale: "I can't resist pinball machines once I start playing them."

He was sentenced to 90 days in the workhouse, fined $300.

Eight Coaches List Him Tops In County Vote

Atlanta First School To Receive Trophy Twice Since Start

By DAVE BROWN
Herald Sports Editor

Harold Harmon Gerhardt, tall and slim senior from Atlanta, is the 1955 winner of the Bowsher Memorial Basketball Trophy, sponsored by The Circleville Herald.

Eight of the 10 coaches who voted placed Gerhardt's name first. One coach listed him second while another marked him sixth. (No ballot was received from Scioto.)

Only two other players received first place votes. One went to Dale Pettibone, Ashville's fine playmaker, who was second in the voting. Another went to Virgil Anderson, of Williamsport.

The trophy will be presented at the athletic banquet to be held soon at Atlanta. This is the first time that the trophy has gone to the same school more than once in eight years. Harley Evans won it in 1952 for the Perry Township School.

THE AWARD is given on the basis of play in the county tournament. The trophy is given in memory of Bob Bowsher, well-liked Circleville High School athlete, who was killed during World War II.

Scoring for the coveted recognition went this way: 10 points for a first place vote, nine points for second, eight points for third, etc.

Gerhardt received a total of 94 out of a possible 100 votes. Pettibone got 59 points for runnerup honors.

In third place was Gene Stonerock, Williamsport's high scoring forward. He was given 45 points.

Close behind in fourth place was Scioto's Pete Martin with 41 points. Jeff Sturgell, Ashville's classy forward who collided with Martin in the finals and was knocked out, received 34 points for fifth place.

OF THE 24 BOYS nominated, Scioto Township School topped the number of nominations with four. Ashville, Atlanta, Williamsport and Pickaway each had three boys listed.

Gerhardt also won two other honors. He took the county scoring title and in addition was named to the all-county team at center, for which he received the greatest number of votes. (See sports page)

The quiet, dark haired center has compiled a record of 1,507 points in his four years of high school play. In 87 games, his average was 17.3 points a game.

Man Arrested In Lima For Italy Slaying

CLEVELAND (AP)—Ernest Navarre, attorney for a man arrested in Lima, said today he would demand the government prove his client is the person wanted in Italy for a 1922 ambush murder.

U. S. Marshal Xavier North arrested the man yesterday and identified him as Tommaso Argento, 39, convicted in absentia in the killing of Giovanni Cammilleri at Ioppolo on the island of Sicily.

Donald F. Miller, chief of Lima police, said the man was picked up during a disturbance at a tavern. The chief said he identified him as Argento through a photograph and that the man had admitted that was his name. He had been using a different name in Lima.

The arrest was on a federal warrant issued by the U. S. government at the request of the Italian government. The Italian government tried Argento and 11 others for the murder in 1931 although he was not present at the trial. Argento and one other person were sentenced to life in prison.

Cammilleri was described as a land owner who resisted a "gangster system" on the island. He was killed June 3, 1922.

The Italians seek to extradite the arrested man.

Both Sides Ward Against Any Absentees

Showdown Ballot Set For Early Next Week On Compromise Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The outcome of the Senate battle over an income tax cut appeared so close today that both Democratic and Republican leaders took steps to guard against absentees.

With the showdown vote set for next Tuesday or Wednesday, word went out to all senators to cancel any engagements which might take them away from Washington for those days.

Sen. Burd (D-Va.) and Republican Senate leaders continued to express confidence they had the votes to turn back any tax cut plan by a slim margin.

But Democratic leaders still were trying to build up steam for their proposal to give a $908 million annual income tax reduction to lower-income families.

Both sides agreed yesterday to limit debate starting Tuesday. The agreement calls for four hours of discussion of the tax cut plan, two hours for any other proposed amendment, and two hours of general debate preceding the vote.

OTHER THAN the tax cut, there was little controversy over the bill, which would extend for one year corporation and excise taxes scheduled to drop April 1.

In the second day of floor debate yesterday, Sens. Long (D-La.), Humphrey (D-Minn.), Neuberger (D-Ore.), Barkley (D-Ky.) and Gore (D-Tenn.) among others spoke out for the tax cut.

It appeared likely the absentee situation would be a stand-off with each side lacking one of its votes.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine) is traveling in the Far East while Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass) is in Florida convalescing from a serious operation last fall.

Humphrey in his floor speech gave an indication of how close the outcome might be. Addressing Sen. Langer (R-ND), the only Republican who has announced for the income tax reduction, the Minnesota said:

"You just get us two more Republicans to go along with you, and we'll do business on our amendment."

Langer answered with a smile, "I'm lucky to have my own vote."

Some Democratic sources were hinting they had some hope of picking up the vote of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.). But McCarthy said he had not taken a position.

Meanwhile, it was learned that Sen. McClelland (D-Ark.), who originally had opposed the $20-for-everybody tax cut voted by the House, was inclined to favor the current substitute.

The tax cut in the substitute would amount to less than half of the $2.2 billion revenue loss of the $20-for-everybody reduction.

The cut in the Senate Democratic leaders' version would amount to $10 a person in most cases, but generally would be limited to families with incomes of $5,000 or less. The substitute also would repeal other tax benefits voted last year to corporations and stockholders to provide revenues to offset the income tax reduction.

Suspect Is Held In Man's Death

COLUMBUS (AP)—Police today continued questioning a 34-year-old Columbus man picked up Thursday night in the shotgun slaying of Ohio State University student Don Keyes, 24.

Keyes was shot in the head at close range early Tuesday at a service station where he worked as an attendant. About $50 was taken from the station.

Police did not identify the man they are questioning. Hundreds of persons attended funeral services here yesterday for Keyes, who was married and had two children.

White Motor Co. Sells Big Plant

CLEVELAND (AP)—Thompson Products, Inc., yesterday bought a huge plant from the White Motor Co. here for $3 million.

Thompson, which makes automotive, aircraft and electronic parts, will use the 375,000-square-foot plant to expand its Tapco division. White, manufacturer of motor trucks and coaches, will continue operations in its main Cleveland plant. White used the second plant mostly for storage.

Prober Finds No Evidence Gains Tax Keeps Stocks Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) said today he thinks the Senate's stock market inquiry has pretty well demolished a Wall Street argument that the capital gains tax has a lot to do with keeping stock prices high.

Fulbright heads the Senate Banking Committee, whose "friendly study" of the market and its 18-month-old boom is in recess for the weekend. Its witness Monday will be William Martin Jr., chairman of the Federal Reserve Board.

The inquiry has heard conflicting testimony about the capital gains tax. Several witnesses from the financial community argued that it forces prices up. They contended people don't want to sell stock if they have to pay a tax on their profits. The result, they say, is a smaller amount of stock for sale and hence a higher price. So they called for reduction if not elimination of the tax.

The capital gains tax as it affects larger investors now is 25 per cent. That is, if a man sells

Ammer Given Commendation By Williamsport

Phone Association Tells Of Growth, Changes To Dial

A delegation representing Williamsport was on record today with a commendation for Pickaway County Prosecutor William Ammer for the manner in which he is battling automatic hikes in long distance telephone rates.

Members of the group, who accompanied Ammer to an Ohio Public Utilities Commission hearing in Columbus Thursday, had voiced informal praise earlier for the prosecutor. Subsequently, a prepared statement declared Ammer "made the most realistic and most impressive presentation of facts... and clearly interpreted the statutes as they were originally written and intended by the legislature."

The PUCO is considering action to end the automatic rate increase provision. From Williamsport at Thursday's hearing were:

H. W. Campbell, president of the Farmers National Bank; George E. Hamman and Harold Fry, councilmen; Gerald Reynolds, village clerk; and Mayor W. B. Johnson.

ALONG WITH their subscribers, the state's independent telephone companies have a vital stake in the present deliberations of the PUCO. The recent hearing before the commission also drew from Ammer sharp criticism of the telephone service in Pickaway County.

Because of these two related facts, a statement just issued by the Ohio Independent Telephone Association has timely interest. The association declared:

"Ohio's robust independent telephone industry will break all records for expansion during 1955.

"There are now 162 independent operating throughout two-thirds of the state. They have doubled their subscribers since 1940, to a total of more than 668,000. Statistics show they will add 32,514 more telephones this year, exceeding last year's total by 2,000. Scheduled additions to buildings and equipment total $22,613,000—more than $2 million above 1954.

"Ohio independents now employ 6,778 persons, who will receive about $19,450,000 this year. The companies' common and preferred stocks are owned by 44,168 shareholders. Among the larger Ohio cities served by independents are: Ashland, Ashtabula, Athens, Cambridge, Chillicothe, Elyria, Lima, Lorain, Mansfield, Marion, Newark, Portsmouth, Warren and Wooster.

"During 1954, 31 Ohio independent exchanges were converted from magneto or common battery operation to automatic dial, involving some 77,000 telephones. Forty-six more exchanges will change to dial in 1955, continuing the marked automatic trend."

Independent Phone Expansion Reported

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio's 162 independent telephone companies have doubled their subscriptions to 668,000 since 1940, the Ohio Independent Telephone Assn. reports.

In releasing the statement yesterday, Daniel W. DeHayes, association secretary-treasurer, said the state's independent phone companies will break all records, for expansion this year.

A total of $22,613,000 is scheduled to be spent for additions to buildings and equipment in 1955. That is $2 million more than last year, he said.

A-Blast Set Off

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The fifth atomic blast in the 1955 test series went off shortly before dawn today. The shot was less than major size.

The annual staff of Circleville High School, under the guidance of Miss Margaret Mattinson, will have completed the 1955 "circle" by next Tuesday. Playing a large part in the production of the yearbook are:

Robert Lamb, business manager; Elizabeth Musser, editor-in-chief; and Jane Wallace, art editor.

The staff consists of approximately 20 members who have worked diligently throughout the year to make this book a success.

All members of the senior class are taking orders for the "Circle" which will be off the press the latter part of May. All books must be ordered by March 15.

Nine members of the Pickaway County Citizens Committee recently visited Circleville High School on an inspection tour.

Purpose of the tour was to compare facilities in Circleville with those of other schools studied in the county.

George McDowell, Pickaway County superintendent of schools, sponsored the group which included:

Ralph DeLong, D. Hayden Evans, Curtis Fisher, Mrs. Bonita Hill, Clarence Maxson, Paul Peck, Harford Renick, Charles Rose, and Mrs. George Roth.

Donald Mears, 26-year old Ohio State University student injured in a double-fatality crash a week ago, remains in "critical" condition at University Hospital.

He has "improved" slightly from his head injuries, according to a report from the hospital. Mears was the driver of a car which reportedly was on the wrong side of the road and struck another car.

VA Information For Veterans

Q—I mailed VA a letter applying for disability compensation, and VA sent me a form to be filled out. Since I have been out of service more than a year, my compensation can be effective only to the date I applied. Which date will that be—the date of my letter or the date of my formal application?

A—If your claim is approved, your compensation payments may date back to the date your letter was received by VA.

Q—I am studying for a graduate degree under the Korean GI Bill. I have to satisfy a foreign language requirement, but my school does not offer foreign language courses. May I take such a course in a different school?

A—Yes, provided your school does three things: (1) certifies to VA that you are a graduate student; (2) designates the subject you are to take at the second school, and (3) agrees to allow full credit for your language course in partial fulfillment of your degree program.

Q—I intend to file a claim for a pension, based on the death of my husband, a World War I veteran. Is there any deadline for applying?

A—There is no deadline for applying for a death pension. However, if you apply within one year of your husband's death, the payments may be made retroactive to the day following his death. If you wait longer than one year, the payments are effective as of the date you filed your application.

Q—I am a World War I veteran and I have gone back on active duty. My National Service Life Insurance premiums are being waived while I am in uniform. Even though I am not paying premiums, will I collect dividends on my policy?

A—No. During the period of waiver, GI insurance dividends are not payable.

Picketing Ended At Clay Plants

UHRICHVILLE (AP)—Four clay plants, idled last weekend by picketing coal miners, resumed operation yesterday. A court enjoined further picketing by members of the United Mine Workers at the Stillwater Clay Products Co., the Dennison Sewer Pipe plant, and the Clay City and Evans Brick Co. plants.

The UMW charged the plants were using coal from a non-union mine. The Stillwater Co. also operates a coal mine, and recently severed its contract with the UMW and operated the mine with non-union workers.

India's Nehru Escapes Assassin

BOMBAY, India (AP)—Prime minister Nehru escaped assassination today by warding off a knife-wielding assailant who jumped on his automobile in Central India.

Police announced the arrest of a 32-year-old rickshaw puller, whose name was given as Basu Rao, and an unidentified second man in connection with the attempt.

There was no immediate announcement of any reason for the attack. Police said Rao was from the Maharashtra area. A Maharashtra man was hanged for the 1948 assassination of Mohanda K. Gandhi.

Beating Taxman Proved Costly

DAYTON (AP)—John Caldwell Jr. didn't like the way the internal revenue department brought a levy against his wages to collect $374.53 in delinquent taxes, he told a supervisor in the revenue department office here.

Then he started beating supervisor Harold R. Richards, 44, about the face with his fists.

Caldwell, 29, pleaded guilty to an assault and battery charge before Municipal Judge Maurice A. Russell. He was fined court costs and sentenced to a year at the city workhouse.

Harold began playing basketball in the sixth grade in Perry Township. His present coach, J. R. Creamer, says that Harold practices constantly, always trying to improve himself.

Starting as a forward in his freshman year, Harold had to wait until Evans graduated before he could take over at center. He won a junior high school foul shooting contest when he made 21 of 25 free throws.

Harold apparently has grown only one inch since his sophomore days. At 6' 1", he is not considered too tall. But he will pass off almost as many times as he will shoot, relying on the team work of the other members of the squad.

Atlanta, by the way, has an enrollment of only 20 boys; 17 play basketball.

As to the future, contacts are being made with several colleges. Harold himself is not sure just what road to take. He may even work with his brother Charlie in the electronics and television business.

High Court Hears Dispute In Bingo Case

COLUMBUS (AP)—Common Pleas Judge Vernon Smith of Scioto County testified in Ohio Supreme Court here that he should preside in further action by the state to padlock a bingo parlor near Portsmouth.

Chief Justice Carl V. Weyandt conducted the Supreme Court proceedings on an affidavit of bias and prejudice filed against Judge Smith by Robert B. Krupahsky, assistant Ohio attorney general.

The high court scheduled final arguments in the case for 3 p. m. Monday.

Krupahsky said he accused Judge Smith of prejudice after a February talk with the jurist in chambers about proceeding with the bingo case in court the following day.

Krupahsky filed a padlock petition on Feb. 24 against the Chez Paree near Wheelersburg, claiming that bingo games there constituted gambling. He asked temporary and permanent injunctions to close the place as a common nuisance.

Krupahsky also filed his affidavit against Judge Smith because of what he termed different ideas over how to proceed with the case. Weyandt assigned Common Pleas Judge William D. Radcliff of Pickaway County, who issued a temporary padlock order. The Supreme Court today considered the question of whether Judge Smith should preside over the action for a permanent injunction and other proceedings.

Hobart Payne; given 1-15 years in the pen for one count of breaking and entering. Two counts of petit larceny were dropped. Sentence includes hard labor. Payne had earlier pleaded innocent but changed his plea.

Clyde O'Dell Jr.; given a 1-15 jail term for breaking and entering and a 1-7 term for grand larceny. He was sentenced to Mansfield Reformatory with the terms, including hard labor, running at the same time.

Ray E. Davis; received the same punishment as O'Dell at Mansfield for the same type of offenses.

Francis Chilcote; sentenced to 1-20 years at the pen, at hard labor, for forgery. He requested that he be returned to the London Prison Farm where he had been serving out a 14-year sentence. Judge William D. Radcliff said he would approve recommending the move.

Gilbert Fout; given 1-3 years at the pen for non-support. Term includes hard labor.

JAMES R. PAYNE; placed on probation for five years. He had been accused of two counts of breaking and entering and grand larceny and one count of breaking and entering and petit larceny. Judge Radcliff said the probation was ordered because this was Payne's first offense. However, the judge warned Payne to observe strictly the terms of his probation. Payne has six months in which to pay the costs of his hearings.

Youngstown Eyes Air Force Plans

YOUNGSTOWN (AP)—The Air Force refused to limit its activities at Municipal Airport by amending its lease, but Mayor Frank Kryzan said today he expects a letter from Air Secretary Harold Talbot describing in detail how far military expansion will affect the base.

The mayor and city council said they are afraid defense installations might be expanded so much that they would curtail civilian and commercial aviation. One jet squadron is already based here and the Air Force proposes to add a reserve squadron and training center.

Both Sides Ward Against Absentees

Showdown Ballot Set For Early Next Week On Compromise Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The outcome of the Senate battle over an income tax cut appeared so close today that both Democratic and Republican leaders took steps to guard against absentees.

With the showdown vote set for next Tuesday or Wednesday, word went out to all senators to cancel any engagements which might take them away from Washington for those days.

Sen. Burd (D-Va) and Republican Senate leaders continued to express confidence they had the votes to turn back any tax cut plan by a slim margin.

But Democratic leaders still were trying to build up steam for their proposal to give a $908 million annual income tax reduction to lower-income families.

Both sides agreed yesterday to limit debate starting Tuesday. The agreement calls for four hours of discussion of the tax cut plan, two hours for any other proposed amendment, and two hours of general debate preceding the vote.

OTHER THAN the tax cut, there was little controversy over the bill, which would extend for one year corporation and excise taxes scheduled to drop April 1.

In the second day of floor debate yesterday, Sens. Long (D-La), Humphrey (D-Minn), Neuberger (D-Ore), Barkley (D-Ky) and Gore (D-Tenn) among others spoke out for the tax cut.

It appeared likely the absentee situation would be a stand-off with each side lacking one of its votes. Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine) is traveling in the Far East while Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass) is in Florida convalescing from a serious operation last fall.

Humphrey in his floor speech gave an indication of how close the outcome might be. Addressing Sen. Langer (R-ND), the only Republican who has announced for the income tax reduction, the Minnesotan said:

"You just get us two more Republicans to go along with you, and we'll do business on our amendment."

Langer answered with a smile, "I'm lucky to have my own vote." Some Democratic sources were hinting they had some hope of picking up the vote of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis). But McCarthy said he had not taken a position.

Meanwhile, it was learned that Sen. McClelland (D-Ark), who originally had opposed the $20-for-everybody tax cut voted by the House, was inclined to favor the current substitute.

The tax cut in the substitute would amount to less than half of the $2.2 billion revenue loss of the $20-for-everybody reduction.

The cut in the Senate Democratic leaders' version would amount to $10 a person in most cases, but generally would be limited to families with incomes of $5,000 or less.

The substitute also would repeal other tax benefits voted last year to corporations and stockholders to provide revenues to offset the income tax reduction.

We needed a picture comprehensive to finite minds so God sent his son that we might have a picture we could comprehend better.

Suspect Is Held In Man's Death

COLUMBUS (AP)—Police today continued questioning a 34-year-old Columbus man picked up Thursday night in the shotgun slaying of Ohio State University student Don Keyes, 24.

Keyes was shot in the head at close range early Tuesday at a service station where he worked as an attendant. About $50 was taken from the station.

Police did not identify the man they are questioning. Hundreds of persons attended funeral services here yesterday for Keyes, who was married and had two children.

Prober Finds No Evidence Gains Tax Keeps Stocks Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark) said today he thinks the Senate's stock market inquiry has pretty well demolished a Wall Street argument that the capital gains tax has a lot to do with keeping stock prices high.

Fulbright heads the Senate Banking Committee, whose "friendly study" of the market and its 18-month-old boom is in recess for the weekend. Its witness Monday will be William Martin Jr., chairman of the Federal Reserve Board.

The inquiry has heard conflicting testimony about the capital gains tax.

Several witnesses from the financial community argued that it forces prices up. They contended people don't want to sell stock if they have to pay a tax on their profits. The result, they say, is a smaller amount of stock for sale and hence a higher price. So they called for reduction if not elimination of the tax.

The capital gains tax as it affects larger investors now is 25 per cent. That is, if a man sells

Ammer Given Commendation By Williamsport

Phone Association Tells Of Growth, Changes To Dial

A delegation representing Williamsport was on record today with a commendation for Pickaway County Prosecutor William Ammer for the manner in which he is battling automatic hikes in long distance telephone rates.

Members of the group, who accompanied Ammer to an Ohio Public Utilities Commission hearing in Columbus Thursday, had voiced informal praise earlier for the prosecutor. Subsequently, a prepared statement declared Ammer "made the most realistic and most impressive presentation of facts... and clearly interpreted the statutes as they were originally written and intended by the legislature."

The PUCO is considering action to end the automatic rate increase provision. From Williamsport at Thursday's hearing were:

H. W. Campbell, president of the Farmers National Bank; George E. Hamman and Harold Fry, councilmen; Gerald Reynolds, village clerk; and Mayor W. B. Johnson.

ALONG WITH their subscribers, the state's independent telephone companies have a vital stake in the present deliberations of the PUCO. The recent hearing before the commission also drew from Ammer sharp criticism of the telephone service in Pickaway County.

Because of these two related facts, a statement just issued by the Ohio Independent Telephone Association has timely interest. The association declared:

"Ohio's robust independent telephone industry will break all records for expansion during 1955."

"There are now 162 independents operating throughout two-thirds of the state. They have doubled their subscribers since 1940, to a total of more than 668,000. Statistics show they will add 32,514 more telephones this year, exceeding last year's total by 2,000. Scheduled additions to buildings and equipment total $22,613,000—more than $2 million above 1954."

"Ohio independents now employ 6,778 persons, who will receive about $19,450,000 this year. The companies' common and preferred stocks are owned by 44,168 shareholders. Among the larger Ohio cities served by independents are: Ashland, Ashtabula, Athens, Cambridge, Chillicothe, Elyria, Lima, Lorain, Mansfield, Marion, Newark, Portsmouth, Warren and Wooster."

"During 1954, 31 Ohio independent exchanges were converted from magneto or common battery operation to automatic dial, involving some 77,000 telephones. Forty-six more exchanges will change to dial in 1955, continuing the marked automatic trend."

Independent Phone Expansion Reported

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio's 162 independent telephone companies have doubled their subscriptions to 668,000 since 1940, the Ohio Independent Telephone Assn. reports.

In releasing the statement yesterday, Daniel W. DeHayes, association secretary-treasurer, said the state's independent phone companies will break all records, for expansion this year.

A total of $22,613,000 is scheduled to be spent for additions to buildings and equipment in 1955. That is $2 million more than last year, he said.

VA Information For Veterans

Q—I mailed VA a letter applying for disability compensation, and VA sent me a form to be filled out. Since I have been out of service more than a year, my compensation can be effective only to the date I applied. Which date will that be—the date of my letter or the date of my formal application?

A—If your claim is approved, your compensation payments may date back to the date your letter was received by VA.

Q—I am studying for a graduate degree under the Korean GI Bill. I have to satisfy a foreign language requirement, but my school does not offer foreign language courses. May I take such a course in a different school?

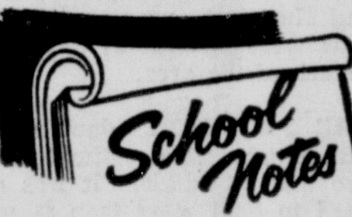

A—Yes, provided your school does three things: (1) certifies to VA that you are a graduate student; (2) designates the subject you are to take at the second school, and (3) agrees to allow full credit for your language course in partial fulfillment of your degree program.

Q—I intend to file a claim for a pension, based on the death of my husband, a World War I veteran. Is there any deadline for applying?

A—There is no deadline for applying for a death pension. However, if you apply within one year of your husband's death, the payments may be made retroactive to the day following his death. If you wait longer than one year, the payments are effective as of the date you filed your application.

Q—I am a World War II veteran and I have gone back on active duty. My National Service Life Insurance premiums are being waived while I am in uniform. Even though I am not paying premiums, will I collect dividends on my policy?

A—No. During the period of waiver, GI insurance dividends are not payable.

CIRCLEVILLE HIGH

The Senior Class Play promises to be bigger and better than ever before. "The Great Big Door Step" is the title of the play, scheduled for next Thursday and Friday in the high school auditorium. Mrs. Catherine Pruden, public speaking teacher, is director of the play.

The cast includes: Gail Dunlap, Beverly Elser, Margie Mason, Jill Smith, Raymond McFee, Bob Lamb, Lura Purdin, Jim Palm, Kenneth Williams, and Avanel Thomas.

Senior civics classes under the instruction of Miss Mary Walters have been studying voting in its many stages this week.

Debate was hot over the questions of 18 year olds voting and the use of long and short ballots. All seniors agreed that this course in American government will help them in 1960 when they themselves will vote for the first time.

The annual staff of Circleville High School, under the guidance of Miss Margaret Mattinson, will have completed the 1955 "circle" by next Tuesday. Playing a large part in the production of the yearbook are:

Robert Lamb, business manager; Elizabeth Musser, editor-in-chief, and Jane Wallace, art editor.

The staff consists of approximately 20 members who have worked diligently throughout the year to make this book a success.

All members of the senior class are taking orders for the "Circle" which will be off the press the latter part of May. All books must be ordered by March 15.

Nine members of the Pickaway County Citizens Committee recently visited Circleville High School on an inspection tour.

Purpose of the tour was to compare facilities in Circleville with those of other schools studied in the county.

George McDowell, Pickaway County superintendent of schools, sponsored the group which included:

Ralph DeLong, D. Hayden Evans, Curtis Fisher, Mrs. Bonita Hill, Clarence Maxson, Paul Peck, Harford Renick, Charles Rose, and Mrs. George Roth.

Donald Mears Still On 'Critical' List

Donald Mears, 26-year old Ohio State University student injured in a double-fatality crash a week ago, remains in "critical" condition at University Hospital.

He has "improved" slightly from his head injuries, according to a report from the hospital. Mears was the driver of a car which reportedly was on the wrong side of the road and struck another car. The accident occurred on Route 23, south of the intersection of 762. The two occupants of the second car died from their injuries.

High Court Hears Dispute In Bingo Case

COLUMBUS (AP)—Common Pleas Judge Vernon Smith of Scioto County testified in Ohio Supreme Court here that he should preside in further action by the state to padlock a bingo parlor near Portsmouth.

Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt conducted the Supreme Court proceedings on an affidavit of bias and prejudice filed against Judge Smith by Robert B. Krupansky, assistant Ohio attorney general.

The high court scheduled final arguments in the case for 3 p. m. Monday.

Krupansky said he accused Judge Smith of prejudice after a February talk with the jurist in chambers about proceeding with the bingo case in court the following day.

Krupansky filed a padlock petition on Feb. 24 against the Chez Paree near Wheelersburg, claiming that bingo games there constituted gambling. He asked temporary and permanent injunctions to close the place as a common nuisance.

Krupansky also filed his affidavit against Judge Smith because of what he termed different ideas over how to proceed with the case.

Weygandt assigned Common Pleas Judge William D. Radcliff of Pickaway County, who issued a temporary padlock order. The Supreme Court today considered the question of whether Judge Smith should preside over the action for a permanent injunction and other proceedings.

Picketing Ended At Clay Plants

UHRICHSVILLE (AP)—Four clay plants, idled last weekend by picketing coal miners, resumed operation yesterday. A court enjoined further picketing by members of the United Mine Workers at the Stillwater Clay Products Co., the Dennison Sewer Pipe plant, and the Clay City and Evans Brick Co. plants.

The UMW charged the plants were using coal from a non-union mine. The Stillwater Co. also operates a coal mine, and recently severed its contract with the UMW and operated the mine with non-union workers.

India's Nehru Escapes Assassin

BOMBAY, India (AP)—Prime minister Nehru escaped assassination today by warding off a knife-wielding assailant who jumped on his automobile in Central India.

Police announced the arrest of a 32-year-old rickshaw puller, whose name was given as Basu Rao, and an unidentified second man in connection with the attempt.

There was no immediate announcement of any reason for the attack. Police said Rao was from the Maharashtra area. A Maharashtra man was hanged for the 1948 assassination of Mohanda K. Gandhi.

Beating Taxman Proved Costly

DAYTON (AP)—John Caldwell Jr. didn't like the way the internal revenue department brought a levy against his wages to collect $374.53 in delinquent taxes, he told a supervisor in the revenue department office here.

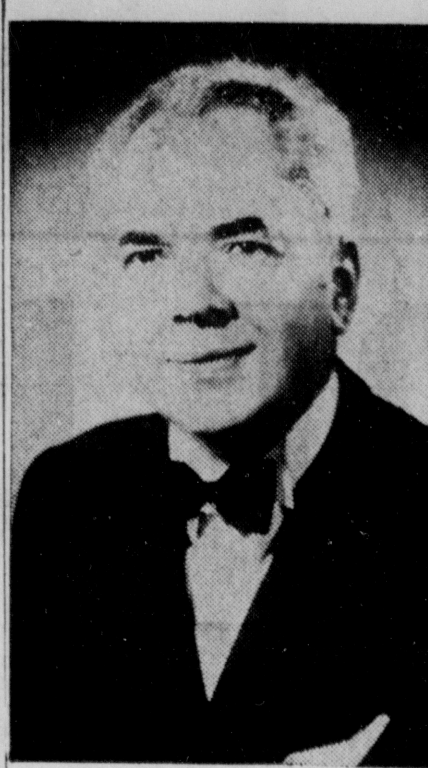

Then he started beating supervisor Harold R. Richards, 44, about the face with his fists.

Caldwell, 29, pleaded guilty to an assault and battery charge before Municipal Judge Maurice A. Russell. He was fined court costs and sentenced to a year at the city workhouse.

Eight Coaches List Him Tops In County Vote

(Continued from Page One) erage comes to 17.3 points per contest. In the 1954-55 season alone, Gerhardt tossed in 637 points in 23 games for a 27.7 average.

During the county tournament, he equaled a six-year mark when he dunked 33 points through the hoops. Not satisfied, he broke this record in a following game when he scored 34 points.

He is a good free thrower, which helps his scoring. In one tournament game, he made 16 out of 19 free throws, which may be still another record.

HAROLD IS sometimes referred to as "Buzzy", a nickname he is not particularly fond of. As a matter of fact, that nickname belongs to his 14-year old brother Gerald. Harold originally was nicknamed "Puzzy" but a Fayette County newspaper misspelled it.

Harold comes from a very large family — 11 brothers and sisters. These include the following:

Gloria, 6; Janet, 8; Richie, 10; Karen, 12; Gerald, 14; Marilyn, 16; Mrs. Opal Hidy, of Grove City, 21; Mrs. Doris Hidy, of near Atlanta, who works at a Circleville bank, 23 (Opal and Doris married brothers); Mrs. Virginia Van Etten, of Dayton, 27; Glenn, 26, of Springfield; and Charlie, of Xenia, 29.

Glenn and Charlie were both top basketball players in their day. Harold's father, Edward, died in 1950. For many years he had been the custodian at Atlanta and saw to it that his boys got into the school gym to practice. His mother is the former Ethel Stevenson.

HAROLD BEGAN playing basketball in the sixth grade in Perry Township. His present coach, J. R. Creamer, says that Harold practices constantly, always trying to improve himself.

Starting as a forward in his freshman year, Harold had to wait until Evans graduated before he could take over at center. He won a junior high school foul shooting contest when he made 21 of 25 free throws.

Harold apparently has grown only one inch since his sophomore days. At 6' 1", he is not considered too tall. But he will pass off almost as many times as he will shoot, relying on the team work of the other members of the squad.

Atlanta, by the way, has an enrollment of only 20 boys; 17 play basketball.

As to the future, contacts are being made with several colleges. Harold himself is not sure just what road to take. He may even work with his brother Charlie in the electronics and television business.

HAROLD WORKS mostly right

BRING A FRIEND TO CHURCH WITH YOU

Religious Faiths Aid Millions By Overseas Relief

America's three great religious faiths — Protestant, Catholic and Jewish — are planning or already conducting their annual appeals for funds with which to support the world-wide projects of their overseas relief organizations. The programs aid millions of hungry, homeless and destitute people in areas of distress abroad.

Through the efforts of the religious faiths — made possible by response to special appeals in their houses of worship and in sabbath schools — literally hundreds of millions of pounds of food, clothing, medicines and other supplies will go this year to victims of war, flood, famine and disaster in all parts of the free world.

Through them, also, refugees from oppression will be cared for, orphanages and hospitals will be maintained, uprooted peoples will be rehabilitated and resettled, thousands will be taught new skills to make them self-sufficient, depleted and disaster-stricken farm areas will get new supplies of tools, seeds, livestock, and other necessary agricultural equipment.

Major portion of the funds necessary to this great work—all done without question as to race, color or creed of those benefitting—will be raised in the appeals currently being made independently within the religious faith groups.

These appeals are:

The "One Great Hour of Sharing" United Appeal—sponsored for major Protestant and Eastern Orthodox churches by Church World Service, a central department of the National Council of Churches—with special observances simultaneously in many communions on Sunday, March 20.

"The Bishops' Fund for the Victims of War"—sponsored by the Administrative Board of the Roman Catholic Bishops of the United States, with special offerings being made—also on March 20 (Laetare Sunday)—for overseas relief work through the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

"The Passover Appeal" of the United Jewish Appeal—sponsored by the Synagogue Council of America—currently underway and culminating during the traditional Passover celebration, this year during the week of April 7-14.

Methodist Church To Change Sunday Schedule March 20

A change in the schedule of services, beginning March 20, a week from Sunday, has been announced for the First Methodist Church.

Effective March 20, services will be as follows:

Worship, 8:15-9:15 a. m.; Sunday School, 9:30-10:30 a. m.; worship, 10:45-11:45 a. m.

This Sunday, the minister, The Rev. Charles D. Reed, will use for his sermon subject, "The Rim of Your World."

Christ said to his disciples: "Let us go on to the next towns, that I might preach there also; for that is why I came out."

Christ intended that Christianity should be a world religion and that every Christian should share in His concern. In Christ there is no East or West, in Him no South or North; but one great fellowship of love throughout the whole wide earth.

The Junior Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Vadan Couch, will sing, "When They Ring Those Golden Bells," by Keating, at the 9:30 service.

The Senior Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh, will sing, "O Come Let Us Worship," by Mendelssohn, with Dwight Rector as soloist at the 10:30 service. Mrs. Ervin Leist will be the organist at both services.

Guest Clergyman To Speak Sunday At St. Philip's Here

St. Philip's Church continues its Lenten services and addresses by visiting clergymen with The Rev. John G. Carson, B. D. of St. Andrew's Church in Washington, C. H., speaking on, "The Communion of Saints."

The Rev. Mr. Carson will discuss the church's teachings regarding the Communion of Saints as referred to in the Apostles and Nicene Creeds used by the Anglican Communion. He will use as points of reference Holy Scriptures, writings of the Apostolic Fathers and writings of some of the eighteen century divines of The Church of England.

After graduating from Bexley Hall, The Divinity School of Kenyon College at Gambier, the Rev. Mr. Carson came to St. Andrew's as a member of The Order of Deacons to work under the direction of The Rev. S. Lindsey. Under his direction the parish has grown sufficiently to make the construction of a new church building necessary. He will be ordained to the Sacred Order of the Priesthood on April 13.

Following Sunday's evening service, parishioners of St. Philip's church will have the opportunity of

BRING A FRIEND TO CHURCH WITH YOU

Religious Faiths Aid Millions By Overseas Relief

America's three great religious faiths — Protestant, Catholic and Jewish — are planning or already conducting their annual appeals for funds with which to support the world-wide projects of their overseas relief organizations. The programs aid millions of hungry, homeless and destitute people in areas of distress abroad.

Through the efforts of the religious faiths — made possible by response to special appeals in their houses of worship and in sabbath schools — literally hundreds of millions of pounds of food, clothing, medicines and other supplies will go this year to victims of war, flood, famine and disaster in all parts of the free world.

Through them, also, refugees from oppression will be cared for, orphanages and hospitals will be maintained, uprooted peoples will be rehabilitated and resettled, thousands will be taught new skills to make them self-sufficient, depleted and disaster-stricken farm areas will get new supplies of tools, seeds, livestock, and other necessary agricultural equipment.

Major portion of the funds necessary to this great work—all done without question as to race, color or creed of those benefiting—will be raised in the appeals currently being made independently within the religious faith groups.

These appeals are:

The "One Great Hour of Sharing" United Appeal—sponsored for major Protestant and Eastern Orthodox churches by Church World Service, a central department of the National Council of Churches—with special observances simultaneously in many communions on Sunday, March 20.

"The Bishops' Fund for The Victims of War"—sponsored by the Administrative Board of the Roman Catholic Bishops of the United States, with special offerings being made—also on March 20 (Laetare Sunday)—for overseas relief work through the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

"The Passover Appeal" of the United Jewish Appeal—sponsored by the Synagogue Council of America—currently underway and culminating during the traditional Passover celebration, this year during the week of April 7-14.

Methodist Church To Change Sunday Schedule March 20

A change in the schedule of services, beginning March 20, a week from Sunday, has been announced for the First Methodist Church.

Effective March 20, services will be as follows:

Worship, 8:15-9:15 a. m.; Sunday School, 9:30-10:30 a. m.; worship, 10:45-11:45 a. m.

This Sunday, the minister, The Rev. Charles D. Reed, will use for his sermon subject, "The Rim of Your World."

Christ said to his disciples: "Let us go on to the next towns, that I might preach there also; for that is why I came out."

Christ intended that Christianity should be a world religion and that every Christian should share in His concern. In Christ there is no East or West, in Him no South or North; but one great fellowship of love throughout the whole wide earth.

The Junior Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Vadan Couch, will sing, "When They Ring Those Golden Bells," by Keating, at the 10:30 service.

The Senior Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh, will sing, "O Come Let Us Worship," by Mendelssohn, with Dwight Rector as soloist at the 10:30 service. Mrs. Ervin Leist will be the organist at both services.

Guest Clergyman To Speak Sunday At St. Philip's Here

St. Philip's Church continues its Lenten services and addresses by visiting clergymen with The Rev. John G. Carson, B. D. of St. Andrew's Church in Washington C. H., speaking on, "The Communion of Saints."

The Rev. Mr. Carson will discuss the church's teachings regarding the Communion of Saints as referred to in the Apostles and Nicene Creeds used by the Anglican Communion. He will use as points of reference Holy Scriptures, writings of the Apostolic Fathers and writings of some of the eighteenth century divines of The Church of England.

After graduating from Bexley Hall, The Divinity School of Kenyon College at Gambier, the Rev. Mr. Carson came to St. Andrew's as a member of The Order of Deacons to work under the direction of The Rev. S. Lindsey. Under his direction the parish has grown sufficiently to make the construction of a new church building necessary. He will be ordained to the Sacred Order of the Priesthood on April 13.

Following Sunday's evening service, parishioners of St. Philip's Church will have the opportunity of

LAND WAS THE LURE

LOVE OF THE LAND is an inherent human characteristic. It has been responsible for the extension of frontiers, the growth of the United States, as man moved ever onward in search of homes.

When the communists plotted to take over China, and make it a communist country, it did it through the promise of land reform. The Chinese people were told they should have the land they tilled. Landless tenants were quickly won over to the new regime.

Instead of a great agrarian nation and one of the most prosperous nations on earth, the result has been a vast military power, joining with Russia in efforts to militarize the world, and destroy freedom. The Chinese people are seeing much of what they produce on their new-found farms going to Russia, to feed a hungry and all but slave people.

It is said the Chinese people are not communist at heart, that they prefer peace to war. But under the goading of Russia they have become a great menace to world peace, their hatred for the white race emphasized.

What promised to be a great land reform has become a military adventure, which keeps the American fleet on guard and the peace of the Far East constantly in danger.

RAILROADS' DILEMMA

FIGHTING AGAINST trends which are inimical to railroad revenues, President Fred G. Gurley of the Santa Fe objects to President Eisenhower's 10-year highway program involving $101 billion. Gurley isn't convinced that the nation's highways are in the deplorable condition frequently pictured, and he finds the financing plan questionable.

A more pressing need today, he said, is relief of traffic congestion in urban areas. Gurley takes pot shots at government programs and policies which subsidize competitors of the railroads while at the same time restricting railroads in their efforts to meet competition of truck lines, airlines and inland water transportation system.

He contends that competitors of the railroads, none of which can now qualify as an infant industry, should pay adequate user charges for services, facilities and right of way provided for their use by the government. Then, if the rails were "deregulated" to the plane of their competitors, they could compete on an even basis.

That the railroads have been put at a disadvantage by recent developments isn't debatable. And the national security demands health railroads—for heavy transportation, at least.

These Days

The fact is astounding that Billy Graham, the evangelist, could fill Madison Square Garden in New York with an estimated 5,000 standing on the street, on a cold, wintry day, listening to a loud speaker. Although about 25,000 people is not an enormous number in ratio to the total population of New York, it is larger than a prize-fight, a basketball game, or a political speech draws in this city.

The question must then arise: Why is Billy Graham so popular?

The answer is quite simple: He talks religion. Too many clergymen, in their sermons these days, do not talk religion. They talk about everything else. They review books of temporary value; they review Broadway plays; they are amateur psychiatrists; they go in for social action; they turn the pulpit into a political forum. But they do not talk of man's relations to God and of the evil of sin and of the consequences of infractions of the moral law.

And except for the very few who possess extraordinary histrionic and forensic talents and the other few who do, exceptionally, devote themselves to the task of being God's messengers, their sermons become tiresome and are often trite, and the congregants find golf more amusing or give themselves a few hours to "Do It Yourself" occupations at home.

That is why Billy Graham draws such crowds. The man is not a great preacher, in the style, let us say, of Henry Ward Beecher, but he reaches the conscience of an era that seeks God all over again.

The clergy of all denominations might learn something from the phenomenon of Billy Graham, just as they might have learned something from Bishop Fulton Sheen or Norman Vincent Peale. I have heard Catholics criticize Bishop Sheen for being a showman, but he reaches men's minds and hearts and they understand what he says and they find comfort and guidance in his ministrations.

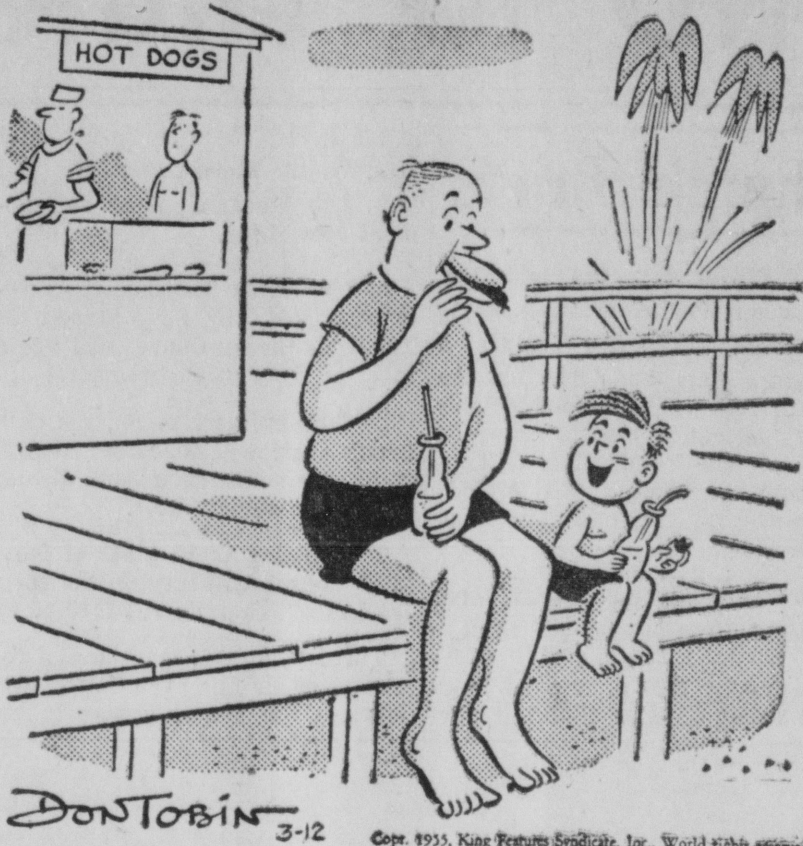

I once had quite a quarrel with a Protestant clergyman over Norman Vincent Peale. This clergyman arbitrarily insisted that Peale was not a Christian because he did not preach his particular brand. The clergyman, incidentally, preferred Communism to Catholicism, although he abhorred both. So I made the point that Peale—this was before his astounding success as an author and on radio and television—could fill his church with people who would not go elsewhere.

In our disturbed period, men and women turn to God for peace and comfort. They want to hear God's word. Call it escapism, if you please, but they are not escaping to voluptuousness and drunkenness. They are escaping from the unreality of fear of the atom to the reality, for them, of the life eternal. It is a wholesome response to the challenge of the confusions of our times. For many, who have been lost in the maze of argumentation and confusion, it opens a door to a new and rich experience.

The churches of God are not public forums nor are they substitute pews for the couch of the psychoanalyst. The clergy are not important as editorial writers who read complex studies on social problems. There are others to perform such wonders. ### Reasons For Baldness

By MERVIN M. BUNDESEN, M.D.

WHAT can you do to prevent baldness? Unfortunately, the answer to this tantalizing question is in many cases simply: "Nothing."

In some instances, however, the process may be slowed down. And here is where we men can take a tip from the women.

Thinning of the hair is probably more common in women than in men, but how many bald women have you seen? There are some all right—a Chicago wig-maker has estimated the number at half a million in America—but the number of totally bald women is far less than the number of completely bald men.

Reasons Are Known

There are reasons for this, and we know what some of them are. First, the layer of scalp fat, which we discussed earlier, is more abundant in women, and wastes away at a much slower pace.

Second, and probably more important to you, is the fact that women give more attention to their hair than do most of you men.

Early loss of hair is frequently preceded by excessive dandruff, and here you can do something that might help you save your hair, or at least keep it a little longer.

Speeding the Day

If you mistreat this crowning glory of yours, you may be speeding the day when you can throw away your comb.

Here are a few simple rules to follow:

Have your own comb and brush. Don't wet your hair each time you comb it, since you seldom, if ever, give any thought to drying it.

Keep your hair clean, but don't overwash it. If you put water on your hair too frequently, it removes the natural oil from your hair and scalp.

While there are no set rules for washing your hair, I think every five to seven days is enough. Certainly do it at least once a month.

Usually, shampooing with a liquid soap is advisable. Follow this with a good rinsing. For a rinse, use a diluted vinegar solution. You can make this by adding one teaspoonful of vinegar to every glass of water.

Brush Every Night

Brushing your hair and scalp every night to get rid of the dirt and scales is helpful. But you must be careful you do not brush so vigorously that you injure your scalp.

Massage your scalp for three to five minutes each night. This will not only bring a feeling of comfort, but it might help stimulate circulation, which might help overcome the causes for your baldness.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

E.A.J.: What causes a person to get black and blue marks at the slightest bump or touch?

Answer: This may be due to purpura. In this condition, the patient has bleeding into the skin which is shown by spots that vary in size from a pinhead to that of a coin, and which look like a bruise.

A person with this condition must have a careful examination by a physician, including a complete examination of the blood so that the clotting time and bleeding time, and the blood platelets which help in the clotting of the blood, may be determined.

CHAPTER THIRTY-ONE

FRED stayed in the Kyle house for an hour, doing what must be done. At noon, he went upstairs to his bag. "Murphy," he said, "I asked you if you had done all you could to save Theo Kyle. But you didn't, did you?"

"Well, Fritz . . ."

"I know that you did not give him adrenalin. And—I know what you did give him."

"Would you have done differently?"

Fred looked at him, frowning. "That's hard to tell, isn't it?" he asked. "I believe I would have tried adrenalin. It might not have worked, but . . ."

"I'm sorry, doctor, if you disagree with my treatment."

Fred looked around the room to see if he were forgetting anything. "I hope you won't say any more about his having got hold of alcohol," Fred told Murphy.

Murphy shrugged. "That sounds like an order."

"It is, if you like. I'd hate certain people to catch on to that suggestion. There's no truth in it, but there wouldn't need to be."

"Certain people named Mirandy?" Murphy's teeth glistened in his dark face.

Fred did not reply.

"I didn't get Mirandy in on the Nienaber affair, you know?"

Fred nodded. "Yes, I do know. Because you knew where the baby was."

"Have you talked to Mirandy?"

"Yes. She drove me over here."

Murphy's eyes sparkled. "Oh, not really! What did you say to her?"

"Nothing. I didn't need to. And, anyway, she didn't give me a chance," Fred smiled wryly. "She was busy explaining about her experiment in the rapid growth and travel of gossip. She had attempted to stop the wildfire by appealing to Ed Byrd." She had also protested her undying love and affection for Fred.

"Do you believe that?"

"I don't believe any of it. I do think, though, that even Mirandy was shocked when the matter came into court. But, of course, that turned out to be the quickest way to squash the whole thing. Let's go downstairs, shall we?"

"Fred . . ."

Suddenly, Fred was very tired, as if the weight of the whole morning had descended in a mass upon him. "Please," he said wearily, "let's not speak again about Theo Kyle, Murphy. The thing's done, and nothing can be gained by discussing it."

"A quick, merciful death was God's blessing."

"God was not in this house today, Murphy."

"But just the same, death was the right thing, the just thing, for everyone concerned. I believe Theo himself longed for it."

"Maybe so," said Fred, going out into the hall.

Although he agreed with Murphy in the abstract, the whole situation bothered Fred. He took it home with him, and under its cloud, he scarcely spoke during lunch. Murphy and Katie chattered idly, and let him alone. Katie asked if it would be all right if she went over to see Linda, later that afternoon.

"Yes, she'll expect you to."

"You look so tired, Fred."

"I am tired."

"If you are not too busy, perhaps you could manage a nap this afternoon. You were called out so early."

He blinked, trying to remember. "I'll see . . ." he said vaguely, kissing her.

He drove to the hospital, but sat for five minutes out in the car, thinking.

He wished he had not asked Murphy to come to Jennings. Looking back, he couldn't see why he had sent for him. He knew what was wrong with Theo Kyle; he knew what might be done for the man, up to and including the measure which Murphy had taken this morning. Had he expected that temptation of doing the very thing that had been done? Did Murphy think that was why Fred wanted him?

And was it?

He sat looking at the spotted windshield, at the grass and the shed to be seen through it—and his mind, his conscience, his knowledge self labored to judge this matter honestly.

Murphy had decided at once that Fred was in love with Linda. He was not . . . But did he love her? That was somewhat different, and did he? That answer had to be yes. He did love her, cherish her—but it was as if that love existed in a different incarnation for the two of them. As if they loved each other, man and woman, as characters in a different book from the one he wrote with Katie. The book of Linda and Fred Seifer was to be read and considered and set aside. Both he and Linda knew that it could never come to a breathing, living actuality.

Theo Kyle had died at noon on Friday. Linda wanted the funeral to be a private one on Saturday. But the Kyle name was too big in the state to permit that. Many great men wanted to do Theo honor. The time was set for Sunday afternoon, with an official delegation from the state legislature to be sent to Jennings.

Meanwhile, the town marked time. Fred Seifer worked as usual. He had the Dudley child on Friday evening. He left home early on Saturday to see that she got safely on her way to Denver. As he left the house, he told Katie that he was going to operate on "old McFadden."

She laughed. "I've heard that before . . ."

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

news behind

the news

By Ray Tucker

Editor's Note: Every Saturday, Mr. Tucker answers readers' questions of general interest on national and international policies and personalities. Questions may be sent to him at 7008 Hillcrest Place, Chevy Chase, Md.

WASHINGTON—In 20 years of writing this column, I have been deeply impressed and extremely grateful for the kindness and thoughtfulness, the tolerance and understanding, of the vast majority of my readers. Even when they disagreed with me, they conceded that there are always two sides, as well as different viewpoints, to any question. Their attitude has been a real satisfaction and help.

AN INSULT—The reason for injection of this personal note is an insulting and provocative letter from P. Q., of Albuquerque, N. M. After listing several questions, he (or she) writes:

"No, Mr. Tucker, you won't answer one of these questions because you dare not face the truth and if you did face it, you dare not print it because you would be among the unemployed tomorrow. But when you write the hogwash and twaddle you do, remember that there are people who read, who know our dirty history of the past 25 years, who know that Eisenhower is a New Dealer, who know the New Deal will go to any length to keep up the New Deal practice of spending, taxing, electing.

"We'd cut off our hands before we'd ever vote again. No, Mr. Tucker, we are not all morons. Disgustedly."

P. Q.'s questions and my answers follow.

"In What way does Eisenhower differ from Truman? Wasn't Eisenhower Truman's hand-picked successor?"

Answer: Truman once offered to help Ike get the presidential nomination, but on consideration, of course, that he run on a Democratic ticket. Truman stumped the country against Ike, and pulled no punches in supporting Adlai E. Stevenson. To the former President, even the humblest Republican is a political enemy.

SEEKS HALT—Ike is certainly no New Dealer. It is true that he has retained certain basic reforms—Social Security, collective bargaining, agricultural benefits, federal support of education, health and the needy aged. No President, regardless of his social and economic philosophy, would dare to abolish them. And no major party, either.

But in his effort to limit federal expansion in many fields, to substitute therefore a "partnership" concept, to check reckless spending, and to restore power to the states, Eisenhower seeks to halt and reverse New Deal trends. If not, why do they fight him so bitterly, as in the Dixon-Yates matter?

"Why was New Mexico cut out of the reclamation project, while $99,000,000 was sent to India for reclamation?"

Answer: I do not know why New Mexico was eliminated. But if the state has worthy reclamation projects, and the money was withheld for reasons of economy, I think it outrageous that it should have been diverted to India.

TAX CUT—"Why is it so horrifying to give American taxpayers a twenty dollar tax cut, while Stassen is going to give Asia and Europe, including former enemies, $5 billion this year?"

Answer: I believe that the proposed $20 tax cut at this time would do more harm than good. I think Stassen ought to be fired pronto, as I have written, and his $7 billion backlog of funds for foreign aid applied to balancing the budget. Only money for essential economic and military assistance to fight communism should be spent abroad. Incidentally, the figure is $3 billion, not $5 billion.

BUDGET—"When will the budget be balanced, if Eisenhower is going to spend hundreds of billions on roads and schools?"

Answer: We are nearer to balancing the budget than in many years. Rather than skimp on schools and highways, two great national assets, I would prefer that it remain out of balance for a few years more.

FIASCO—"How many military aircraft did England build with the $35,000,000 we gave her? How much went into building commercial planes to compete with American aviation companies?"

Answer: The figure was not $35,000,000 but several hundred million a year. I think that most of it was a total waste. Besides strengthening England's commercial aviation system, it reduced employment in this country. But that is not the most serious objection.

According to British newspapers, the planes praised so highly by Stassen in answer to congressional criticism, were so poorly planned and so badly built that they are virtually obsolete now. None can match the fighters and bombers we turn out in this country.

Thinning of the hair is probably more common in women than in men, but how many bald women have you seen? There are some all right—a Chicago wig-maker has estimated the number at half a million in America—but the number of totally bald women is far less than the number of completely bald men.

Reasons Are Known

There are reasons for this, and we know what some of them are. First, the layer of scalp fat, which we discussed earlier, is more abundant in women, and wastes away at a much slower pace.

Second, and probably more important to you, is the fact that women give more attention to their hair than do most of you men.

Early loss of hair is frequently preceded by excessive dandruff, and here you can do something that might help you save your hair, or at least keep it a little longer.

Speeding the Dred

If you mistreat this crowning glory of yours, you may be speeding the day when you can throw away your comb.

Here are a few simple rules to follow:

Have your own comb and brush.
Don't wet your hair each time you comb it, since you seldom, if ever, give any thought to drying it.

Keep your hair clean, but don't overwash it. If you put water on your hair too frequently, it removes the natural oil from your hair and scalp.

While there are no set rules for washing your hair, I think every five to seven days is enough. Certainly do it at least once a month.

Usually, shampooing with a liquid soap is advisable. Follow this with a good rinsing. For a rinse, use a diluted vinegar solution. You can make this by adding one teaspoonful of vinegar to every glass of water.

Brush Every Night

Brushing your hair and scalp every night to get rid of the dirt and scales is helpful. But you must be careful you do not brush so vigorously that you injure your scalp.

Massage your scalp for three to five minutes each night. This will not only bring a feeling of comfort, but it might help stimulate circulation, which might help overcome the causes for your baldness.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

E.A.J.: What causes a person to get black and blue marks at the slightest bump or touch?

Answer: This may be due to purpura. In this condition, the patient has bleeding into the skin which is shown by spots that vary in size from a pinhead to that of a coin, and which look like a bruise. A person with this condition must have a careful examination by a physician, including a complete examination of the blood so that the clotting time and bleeding time, and the blood platelets which help in the clotting of the blood, may be determined.

CHAPTER THIRTY-ONE

FRED stayed in the Kyle house for an hour, doing what must be done. At noon, he went upstairs for his bag. "Murphy," he said, "I asked you if you had done all you could to save Theo Kyle. But you didn't, did you?"

"Well, Fritz . . ."

"I know that you did not give him adrenalin. And I know what you did give him."

"Would you have done different?"

Fred looked at him, frowning. "That's hard to tell, isn't it?"

"I believe I would have tried adrenalin. It might not have worked, but . . ."

"I'm sorry, doctor, if you disagree with my treatment."

Fred looked around the room to see if he were forgetting anything. "I hope you won't say any more about his having got hold of alcohol," Fred told Murphy.

Murphy shrugged. "That sounds like an order."

"It is, if you like. I'd hate certain people to catch on to this suggestion. There's no truth in it, but there wouldn't need to be."

"Certain people named Mirandy?" Murphy's teeth glistened in his dark face.

Fred did not reply.

"I didn't get Mirandy in on the Nienaber affair, you know?"

Fred nodded. "Yes, I do know. Because you knew where the baby was."

"Have you talked to Mirandy?"

"Yes. She drove me over here."

Murphy's eyes sparkled. "Oh, not really! What did you say to her?"

"Nothing. I didn't need to. And, anyway, she didn't give me a chance," Fred smiled wryly. "She was busy explaining about her experiment in the rapid growth and travel of gossip. She had attempted to stop the wildfire by appealing to Ed Byrd." She had also protested her undying love and affection for Fred.

"Do you believe that?"

"I don't believe any of it. I do think, though, that even Mirandy was shocked when the matter came into court. But, of course, that turned out to be the quickest way to squash the whole thing. Let's go downstairs, shall we?"

"Fred . . ."

Suddenly, Fred was very tired, as if the weight of the whole morning had descended in a mass upon him. "Please," he said wearily, "let's not speak again about Theo Kyle, Murphy. The thing's done, and nothing can be gained by discussing it."

"A quick, merciful death was God's blessing."

"God was not in this house today, Murphy."

"But just the same, death was the right thing, the just thing, for everyone concerned. I believe Theo himself longed for it."

"Maybe so," said Fred, going out into the hall.

phy in the abstract, the whole situation bothered Fred. He took it home with him, and under its cloud, he scarcely spoke during lunch. Murphy and Katie chattered idly, and let him alone. Katie asked if it would be all right if she went over to see Linda, later that afternoon.

"Yes, she'll expect you to."

"You look so tired, Fred."

"I am tired."

"If you are not too busy, perhaps you could manage a nap this afternoon. You were called out so early."

He blinked, trying to remember. "I'll see . . ." he said vaguely, kissing her.

He drove to the hospital, but sat for five minutes out in the car, thinking.

He wished he had not asked Murphy to come to Jennings! Looking back, he couldn't see why he had sent for him. He knew what was wrong with Theo Kyle; he knew what might be done for the man, up to and including the measure which Murphy had taken this morning. Had he expected that more from Murphy? Had Fred sent for his friend to avoid the temptation of doing the very thing that had been done? Did Murphy think that was why Fred wanted him?

And was it?

He sat looking at the spotted windshield, at the grass and the shed to be seen through it—and his mind, his conscience, his knowledge self labored to judge this matter honestly.

Murphy had decided at once that Fred was in love with Linda. He was not . . . But did he love her? That was somewhat different, and did he? That answer had to be yes. He did love her, cherish her—but it was as if that love existed in a different incarnation for the two of them. ## National Girl Scout Week Observed By Local Troops

Special Events Are Being Held

Mrs. Walter Heine, Circleville and Pickaway County Girl Scout Commissioner, extends her greetings to all three hundred Girl Scouts in Pickaway County as they join the Girl Scouts of the Nations in observance of the 43rd birthday of Girl Scouting.

Circleville and County Troops have various activities such as the wearing of full uniform, attending church which each individual group has chosen, portrayal of the Brownie Story at meeting times, and the special observance of each day of the week as Homemaking Day, Citizenship Day, Health and Safety Day, International Friendship Day, Arts and Crafts Day and Out of Doors Day.

Mayor Robert E. Hedges has issued a proclamation marking the observance of National Girl Scout week. There are over a million and a half girl members and more than 500,000 adults in the national Girl Scout organization, all of whom are pledged to live up to their promise and laws.

Local Troops are selling Girl Scout Cookies in observance of the birthday. Proceeds will be used to pay for troop supplies and activities.

Mrs. Clarence Bowers Jr., a native of Scotland, was a guest speaker of Girl Scout Troop 23. The troop was privileged to hear Mrs. Bowers discuss Scouting in Scotland and a comparison of Scotland ways with those of America.

At the end of the discussion the meeting turned into a question and answer period.

The Troop meets in the Scout rooms on Thursday and the following girls were present: Nancy Curl, Sandra Davis, Stephanie Hedges, Stephanie Marion, Belinda Plum, Jane Dalton, Karen O'Donnell and Jannette Griest.

Three-Day Food Institute Scheduled To Open Tuesday

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday are red-letter days for housewives of the Circleville area as the Gasco-Circleville Herald Food Institute conducts its annual three-day session in Memorial Hall.

In the five years that the Gasco Food Institute has been making the rounds to various towns, the two groups have traveled a total of 50,000 miles, or enough to circle the earth twice at the equator.

That's a fair amount of traveling, and it included quite a bit of staging. Since the origin of the Institute in the fall of 1949, more than 375,000 persons have viewed the shows.

Usually they play only in Ohio, but their fame has spread and last year they hit New York City—not quite Broadway, but just a little east at the Hotel Pierre on Fifth Avenue.

In a sense it was a "command" performance. The Institute was invited to play before an audience of magazine and newspaper editors at a press conference.

Last year the Food Institute also went on the road to Kentucky and West Virginia. This year one of the two traveling shows will play in Virginia.

The whole thing is masterminded by Mary E. Huck, home service director of the Ohio Fuel Gas Company. Born in Lowell, O., Miss Huck started at the Gas Company right after she was graduated from Ohio University at Athens.

Reason for the two shows is that Ohio is too big to try to do the whole thing with only one. One of the shows takes the Northern part of the state and the other hits the Southern circuit.

Mildred Dunn and Jay Parker, who conduct the shows in the Southern section aided by the Gas Company's local Betty Newton, are regular employees of the Gas Company, and have regular jobs when not on the road. The same holds for Harriett Wolfe and Bob Eichhorn, the other team.

Harriett and Mildred work in the Home Service Department and Bob and Jay work in the Dealer Promotion Department—all in Columbus.

But when show time comes around twice a year they drop everything and get ready to hit the road. Each routine is carefully worked out and rehearsed, and the trouper are ready for anywhere from 45 to 50 cities.

Dayton's Flyers Again Top All-Ohio College Selections

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dayton University's fabulous Flyers dominated the 1955 All-Ohio college basketball team today just as they did the season's play.

The Gem Team placed three of the six on the all-state team picked for The Associated Press today by coaches and sports writers—the first time a single school has won such representation.

Despite the deluge of ballots in favor of the Flyers, top honors went to Cincinnati's Jack Twyman who paced the Bearcats into the NIT tournament with a 25.6 average. Twyman was named captain of the honorary sextet. Six players were named to the top squad, and to the second and third, as they popped up for the last spot in each.

Dayton's Flyers Again Top All-Ohio College Selections

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dayton University's fabulous Flyers dominated the 1955 All-Ohio college basketball team today just as they did the season's play.

The Gem City team placed three of the six on the all-state team picked for The Associated Press today by coaches and sports writers—the first time a single school has won such representation.

Despite the deluge of ballots in favor of the Flyers, top honors went to Cincinnati's Jack Twyman who paced the Bearcats into the NIT tournament with a 25.6 average. Twyman was named captain of the honorary sextet. Six players were named to the top squad, and to the second and third, as ties popped up for the last spot in each.

Although the talented stars of 1,050 Buckeye high schools pour into the Ohio college ranks, four of the six named to the all-state team come from other states.

In side-issue ballots, Dayton's class John Horan was named the state's outstanding player, with Marietta's Mark Davis second and Twyman third; and Tom Blackburn of Dayton and George Smith of Cincinnati deadlocked for the outstanding coach laurels, with Ray Watts of Baldwin Wallace next in line.

All positions were awarded on a straight vote basis.

The selections:
First team, with the votes, height, class, scoring average and home towns:
Jack Twyman, Cincinnati, 48, 6-6, Sr., 25.6, Pittsburgh, Pa.
Bill Uhl, Dayton, 39, 7-0, Jr., 18.5, Greenfield, Ohio.
Mark Davis, Marietta, 34, 6-1, Sr., 26.0, Cairo, W. Va.
John Horan, Dayton, 33, 6-8, Sr., 17.4, Minneapolis, Minn.
Dick Howard, W. Reserve, 25, 6-6, Sr., 25.0, Jamestown, New York.

Jack Sallee, Dayton, 25, 6-3, Sr., 14.8, Springfield, Ohio.

Second Team:
George Dalton, John Carroll Dan Potopsky, Kent State Dave Pointek, Xavier.
Jack Hawken, Wittenberg.
Lou Mitchell, Denison.
Mike Harkins, Akron.

Third Team:
John Hollis, Casp.
Tony Knott, Youngstown.
Dick Klitch, Miami.
Paul Brownlee, Steubenville.
Bob Bernholz, Capital.
Jim Smith, Steubenville.

Redleg Chief Prefers Power At Plate To Fireman Hurler

By GAYLE TALBOT

TAMPA (AP) — This being a day when good relief pitching becomes of greater importance with each passing season, as witness what Hoyt Wilhelm and Marv Grissom did for the Giants, we expressed the thought that Birdie Tebbetts might live to regret the day he parted with Frank Smith, who appeared in 50 games for him last year.

In exchange for Smith, the Cincinnati manager acquired title to Ray Jablonski, a third baseman who unloaded 104 runs batted in for the St. Louis Cardinals, and Gerry Staley, who was a stand-out pitcher a few years ago and still is young enough to make a comeback. Birdie, who has just been rewarded with a new three-year contract for having raised the Redlegs up to fifth place in the National League in '54, said yes, there always was a chance of making a mistake in such a deal.

"But it was a chance I couldn't turn down, getting such a slugger as Jablonski into my lineup," he said. "I know I already had power, but you can never get too much. There's a possibility I will find myself another reliever as good as Smith was, but how often are you offered a hitter who can knock in over 100 runs?"

"It could help both clubs, and I really mean it. The Cards were badly in need of a man who could give them a fine inning or two near the end of a game. They must have lost 25 or 30 because they didn't have such a pitcher last year. If Smith can do for them what he did for us the first half of the season, they're in better shape. He seemed to tire, but he could come back strong, and I hope he does."

Birdie was asked if he had anyone in mind who might take Smith's place and save a late-inning decision for his formidable wrecking crew.

"Yes," he said, "I think maybe I see what I want in Johnny Klippstein, whom we got from Chicago. It's pretty clear by this time that Johnny isn't geared for starting. He can't keep his stuff all the way, but I believe he's got what it takes to get you out of an inning, with a little coaching. If I'm right, I might not miss Smith at all."

Ton Of Talent Falls Out Of Ohio Tourneys

Several Ex-Champions Eliminated In Race For New State Crowns

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A ton of talent fell out of Ohio's high school basketball championship races last night.

Among the more prominent victims in Class A were Martins Ferry, Newark, Dayton Stivers and Springfield which, among them, had won 14 state titles since 1916. Also ushered to the sidelines were the famed Columbiana Clippers, Class B champions in 1947 and runners-up in 1945.

The last of the Class A unbeaten teams hung up its uniforms as St. Marys (19-0) was overwhelmed, 81-49, by Toledo Libbey which won its way into next week's regionals. Copley, one of Class B's state finalists last year and rated ninth in the state, was a 53-46 victim of Liberty Twp. at Kent.

Staubenville's Big Red (16-7) reached the northeastern regionals with a 79-73 win over Martins Ferry, 1941 champion. Bill Ralich, 6-foot-7 sophomore, poured in 33 points to nip Martins Ferry.

Canton Timken (17-5), Cleveland Glenville (14-5) and Akron South (17-2) won northeastern regional berths Thursday night, leaving 11 more Class A spots to be decided today.

Only nine Class B regionalists will be named in tonight's set. Liberty Twp. (25-4), Boston Twp. (21-2) and Vienna (27-0) reached the northeastern regionals last night. Rio Grande (23-1) and McDermott (27-1) made the Athens regional, and Lockland Wayne (23-1) and Bowersville-Jefferson (26-1) the Troy playoff.

Middletown, winner of five state titles, had a nip-and-tuck scrap at Dayton before easing Dayton Stivers out of the fight, 52-51. Stivers, since 1916, has won eight state championships. The Middies (15-7) tangled tonight with Dayton Chaminade (17-5) which surprised everyone with a 60-55 verdict over Dayton Dunbar.

Columbus East, the 1951 champion and rated No. 1 in Class A, ousted three-time champion Newark, 68 to 46. Tecumseh triumphed, 53-51, over Springfield Public, the 1925 and 1950 kings.

Columbiana was beaten, 72-57, by Boston Twp., to end the Clippers' hopes.

The state's leading scorers, Rex Leach of Vienna and Larry Huston of Savannah, tangled in Class B last night at Kent. Vienna came through with its 7th straight victory, 75 to 57. Huston, who had a 45.9 average for 26 games to Leach's 43.4, was held to 27 points while Leach picked up 37.

With the starting Class A field of 308 teams slashed to 27 after last night's contests, six of the top 10 teams in the final Associated Press poll are still on deck. And with only 25 of the 748 Class B teams still in the running nine of the poll's top 10 are still firing. Copley's the only one out of the Class B list, while Findlay, Canton McKinley, East Liverpool and Shelby have dropped in Class A.

Joe Collins Seen Defeated In Bid For Yankee Berth

The Associated Press

Every year the past few years, Joe Collins has had to fight for the first base job on the New York Yankees. Each year he's come out on top of the heap, though.

It's going to be the same old story in '55, except that there probably will be one little variation—he won't make it.

Right now, you could ask Manager Casey Stengel: "Who's on first?" and you'd get a straight answer—Bill Skowron. The job belongs to Skowron so long as he proves he's a big leaguer.

Skowron's a bulk of a youngster, who used to play football for Purdue. He hit .340 for the Yanks last year, playing only off and on. Stengel was impressed with his work with the bat, but the professor was concerned over Bill's main fault—the same one which has kept many other guys out of the majors—poor fielding.

The St. Louis Cardinals polished off the Yanks for the second time in a row yesterday, 3-1 but Skowron looked as though he had been studying George Sisler movies. He fielded flawlessly, looked sharp handling bunts and smashed down the line and, to top it all, made seven assists.

Otherwise, Stengel had little to cheer about. His men outthit the Cards, 9 to 3. Wally Burnette, a rookie pitcher, lost the game for the bombers in the seventh when he yielded two runs on two hits and a walk.

The Cincinnati Redlegs, out to show the National League they can come through with a lineup of sluggers, polished off the Baltimore Orioles, 7-5. Bob Borkowski and Ted Kluszewski accounted for three of the Redlegs' runs with homers.

Hank Aaron, who is making a determined effort to nudge Andy

Lew Burdette and Tumberto Robinson each tossed three scoreless innings for the Braves.

The world champion New York Giants continued their hex over the Cleveland Indians with an 8-3 massacre. That makes it five in a row for the Giants, including the four straight in the World Series last fall. Willie Mays and Eric

Rodin hit home runs for the Giants while Al Dark went three-for-three before retiring in the fifth.

Already consigned to the National League basement, the Pittsburgh Pirates won its second one-run decision in a row by turning back the Washington Senators, 8-7. The Detroit Tigers defeated the Boston Red Sox, 4-1, behind some nice pitching by Bob Miller, Frank Lary and Billy Toft, each of whom gave up only one hit. The Sox only run was unearned.

Bobby Morgan knocked in the winning run to give the Philadelphia Phillies a 4-3 triumph over the Chicago White Sox.

Ohio Derby Purse Hiked To $40,000

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Ohio Derby at Thistledown race track June 25 will be the richest horse race in Ohio history with $40,000 in added money, the track manager, Lou Pondfield, said today.

The mile and one-eighth event for 3-year-olds is in its 21st running this year, but only its third at Thistledown were Alred Gwynn

Cleveland Due To Host 1959 PanAm Games

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland, surprised and apprehensive, started getting ready today to play host in 1959 to the Pan-American games. And it looked like it would take all of four years.

The Pan - American Congress, meeting at Mexico City yesterday, accepted an invitation offered in Cleveland's name by James A. Rhodes, former president of the U. S. Amateur Athletic Union.

The Cleveland AAU said Rhodes has not talked the matter over with its members. James Lee, local secretary, declared the city just did not have the facilities.

Cleveland has a huge municipal stadium but Lee said "everything's wrong with the stadium for track and field events. You'd have to rebuild the whole field. Doing the job would take six or eight weeks, and the games would last 16 days, probably during June or July. What are the Cleveland Indians going to do while all that is going on?"

Lee also said the city would need an eight-lane outdoor swimming pool, 20 feet deep, with seats for from 12,000 to 15,000 spectators.

Then there is the matter of a suitable place to hold rowing races. Lee said that might be possible inside the breakwater in Lake Erie, if the water were calm enough. It sometimes gets rough.

Public Hall and Cleveland Arena Lee said, would probably work out for basketball, wrestling and boxing. And arrangements, he continued, probably could be made for polo matches at one of the clubs in nearby Chagrin Valley.

Vanderbilt's Find posted a derby record of 1:48 two years ago. Purse previously has been $25,000.

Redleg Chief Prefers Power At Plate To Fireman Hurler

By GAYLE TALBOT

TAMPA (AP) — This being a day when good relief pitching becomes of greater importance with each passing season, as witness what Hoyt Wilhelm and Marv Grissom did for the Giants, we expressed the thought that Birdie Tebbetts might live to regret the day he parted with Frank Smith, who appeared in 50 games for him last year.

In exchange for Smith, the Cincinnati manager acquired title to Ray Jablonski, a third baseman who unloaded 104 runs batted in for the St. Louis Cardinals, and Gerry Staley, who was a stand-out pitcher a few years ago and still is young enough to make a comeback. Birdie, who has just been rewarded with a new three-year contract for having raised the Redlegs up to fifth place in the National League in '54, said yes, there always was a chance of making a mistake in such a deal.

"But it was a chance I couldn't turn down, getting such a slugger as Jablonski into my lineup," he said. "I know I already had power, but you can never get too much. There's a possibility I will find myself another reliever as good as Smith was, but how often are you offered a hitter who can knock in over 100 runs?

"It could help both clubs, and I really mean it. The Cards were badly in need of a man who could give them a fine inning or two near the end of a game. They must have lost 25 or 30 because they didn't have such a pitcher last year. If Smith can do for them what he did for us the first half of the season, they're in better shape. He seemed to tire, but he could come back strong, and I hope he does."

Birdie was asked if he had anyone in mind who might take Smith's place and save a late-inning decision for his formidable wrecking crew.

"Yes," he said, "I think maybe I see what I want in Johnny Klippstein, whom we got from Chicago. It's pretty clear by this time that Johnny isn't geared for starting. He can't keep his stuff all the way, but I believe he's got what it takes to get you out of an inning, with a little coaching. If I'm right, I might not miss Smith at all."

Ton Of Talent Falls Out Of Ohio Tourneys

Several Ex-Champions Eliminated In Race For New State Crowns

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A ton of talent fell out of Ohio's high school basketball championship races last night.

Among the more prominent victims in Class A were Martins Ferry, Newark, Dayton Stivers and Springfield which, among them, had won 14 state titles since 1916. Also ushered to the sidelines were the famed Columbian Clippers, Class B champions in 1947 and runners-up in 1945.

The last of the Class A unbeaten teams hung up its uniforms as St. Mary's (19-0) was overwhelmed, 81-49, by Toledo Libbey which won its way into next week's regionals. Copley, one of Class B's state finalists last year and rated ninth in the state, was a 53-46 victim of Liberty Twp. at Kent.

Stevensville's Big Red (16-7) reached the northeastern regionals with a 79-73 win over Martins Ferry, 1941 champion. Bill Ralich, 6-foot-7 sophomore, poured in 33 points to nip Martins Ferry.

Canton Timken (17-5), Cleveland Glenville (14-5) and Akron South (17-2) won northeastern regional berths Thursday night, leaving 11 more Class A spots to be decided today.

Only nine Class B regionalists will be named in tonight's set. Liberty Twp. (25-4), Boston Twp. (21-2) and Vienna (27-0) reached the northeastern regionals last night. Rio Grande (23-1) and McDermott (27-1) made the Athens regional, and Lockland Wayne (23-1) and Bowersville-Jefferson (26-1) the Troy playoff.

Middletown, winner of five state titles, had a nip-and-tuck scrap at Dayton before easing Dayton Stivers out of the fight, 52-51. Stivers, since 1916, has won eight state championships. The Middies (15-7) tangled tonight with Dayton Chaminade (17-5) which surprised everyone with a 60-55 verdict over Dayton Dunbar.

Columbus East, the 1951 champion and rated No. 1 in Class A, ousted three-time champion Newark, 68 to 46. Tecumseh triumphed, 53-51, over Springfield Public, the 1925 and 1950 kings.

Columbiana was beaten, 72-57, by Boston Twp., to end the Clippers' hopes.

The state's leading scorers, Rex Leach of Vienna and Larry Huston of Savannah, tangled in Class B last night at Kent. Vienna came through with its 7th straight victory, 75 to 57. Huston, who had a 45.9 average for 26 games to Leach's 43.4, was held to 27 points while Leach picked up 37.

With the starting Class A field of 308 teams slashed to 27 after last night's contests, six of the top 10 teams in the final Associated Press poll are still on deck. And with only 25 of the 748 Class B teams still in the running nine of the poll's top 10 are still firing. Copley's the only one out of the Class B list, while Findlay, Canton McKinley, East Liverpool and Shelby have dropped in Class A.

Ohio Derby Purse Hiked To $40,000

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Ohio Derby at Thistledown race track June 25 will be the richest horse race in Ohio history with $40,000 in added money, the track manager, Lou Pondfield, said today.

The mile and one-eighth event for 3-year-olds is in its 21st running this year, but only its third at Thistledown were Alred Gwynn

Joe Collins Seen Defeated In Bid For Yankee Berth

The Associated Press

Every year the past five years, Joe Collins has had to fight for the first base job on the New York Yankees. Each year he's come out on top of the heap, though.

It's going to be the same old story in '55, except that there probably will be one little variation—he won't make it.

Right now, you could ask Manager Casey Stengel: "Who's on first?" and you'd get a straight answer—Bill Skowron. The job belongs to Skowron so long as he proves he's a big leaguer.

Skowron's a bulk of a youngster, who used to play football for Purdue. He hit .340 for the Yankees last year, playing only off and on. Stengel was impressed with his work with the bat, but the professor was concerned over Bill's main fault—the same one which has kept many other guys out of the majors—poor fielding.

The St. Louis Cardinals polished off the Yankees for the second time in a row yesterday, 3-1 but Skowron looked as though he had been studying George Sisler movies. He fielded flawlessly, looked sharp handling bunts and smashed down the line and, to top it all, made seven assists.

Otherwise, Stengel had little to cheer about. His men outthit the Cards, 9 to 3. Wally Burnette, a rookie pitcher, lost the game for the bombers in the seventh when he yielded two runs on two hits and a walk.

The Cincinnati Redlegs, out to show the National League they can come through with a lineup of sluggers, polished off the Baltimore Orioles, 7-5. Bob Borkowski and Ted Kluszewski accounted for three of the Redlegs' runs with homers.

Hank Aaron, who is making a determined effort to nudge Andy

Cleveland Due To Host 1959 PanAm Games

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland, surprised and apprehensive, started getting ready today to play host in 1959 to the Pan-American games. And it looked like it would take all of four years.

The Pan - American Congress, meeting at Mexico City yesterday, accepted an invitation offered in Cleveland's name by James A. Rhodes, former president of the U. S. Amateur Athletic Union.

The Cleveland AAU said Rhodes has not talked the matter over with its members. James Lee, local secretary, declared the city just did not have the facilities.

Cleveland has a huge municipal stadium but Lee said "everything's wrong with the stadium for track and field events. You'd have to rebuild the whole field. Doing the job would take six or eight weeks, and the games would last 16 days, probably during June or July. What are the Cleveland Indians going to do while all that is going on?"

Lee also said the city would need an eight-lane outdoor swimming pool, 20 feet deep, with seats for from 12,000 to 15,000 spectators.

Then there is the matter of a suitable place to hold rowing races. Lee said that might be possible inside the breakwater in Lake Erie, if the water were calm enough. It sometimes gets rough.

Public Hall and Cleveland Arena Lee said, would probably work out for basketball, wrestling and boxing. And arrangements, he continued, probably could be made for polo matches at one of the clubs in nearby Chagrin Valley.

Vanderbilt's Find posted a derby record of 1:48 two years ago. Purse at Thistledown were Alred Gwynn Pafko out of his outfield post with the Milwaukee Braves, hit a two-run homer to provide a 4-2 triumph over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Lew Burdette and Tumberto Robinson each tossed three scoreless innings for the Braves.

The world champion New York Giants continued their hex over the Cleveland Indians with an 8-3 massacre. That makes it five in a row for the Giants, including the four straight in the World Series last fall. Willie Mays and Eric

Rodin hit home runs for the Giants while Al Dark went three-for-three before retiring in the fifth.

Already consigned to the National League basement, the Pittsburgh Pirates won its second one-run decision in a row by turning back the Washington Senators, 8-7. The Detroit Tigers defeated the Boston Red Sox, 4-1, behind some nice pitching by Bob Miller, Frank Lary and Billy Tofft, each of whom gave up only one hit. The Sox only run was unearned.

Bobby Morgan knocked in the winning run to give the Philadelphia Phillies a 4-3 triumph over the Chicago White Sox.

Retirement Fund For Judges Proposed Before Legislature

Judge Radcliff Says Proposal 'Long Overdue'

Ohio Is One Of Few States In Country Without Pensions

(First of a series)
"A need long overdue" is the way Pickaway County Common Pleas Judge William D. Radcliff gave his approval to a newly proposed retirement act for Ohio judges.

"Ohio is one of the few states in the country which no pension system for its judges," Judge Radcliff pointed out. "Many judges have to continue on the bench beyond retirement age because there is no pension system."

Briefly, the plan introduced to the Ohio legislature is this: a judge, participating in the plan, will contribute 6 per cent of his salary; when he reaches the age of 60 or older and has 12 years of service, he will receive a pension equal to 25 per cent of his salary.

Additional judicial service will entitle the judge to a greater annuity, up to 40 per cent of his salary.

UNLIKE MOST of the states where judges are not required to pay into the fund, financing will follow the procedure of the present public employees retirement system. In this, the employer and employee each contribute to the fund.

There is no compulsory retirement. However, eligible disabled judges will be able to retire with reasonable security, according to the plan.

Here is a comparison with other states in relationship to the proposal for Ohio:

California—pension, 50 per cent of last salary; contribution of judges, 2 1/2 per cent.

Connecticut—pension, $10,000; contribution, none.

Georgia—23 or last salary; contribution, none.

Illinois—50 per cent of last salary; contribution, 5 per cent.

Louisiana—23 of last salary; contribution, none.

Massachusetts—75 per cent of last salary; contribution, none.

Michigan—$4,500; contribution, 5 per cent (maximum, $250).

Ohio's proposal — 25 to 40 per cent of salary; contribution, 6 per cent.

Rhode Island—75 per cent of last salary; contribution, none.

Tennessee—100 per cent of last salary; contribution, none.

Virginia—75 per cent of last salary; contribution, up to 3 per cent.

The retirement proposal is part of a four-point program. The other sections include:

(1) Increases in judges' salaries.

(2) Elimination of the constitutional bar against increasing judges' salaries during a term of office.

(3) Provision for an administrative assistant to the Supreme Court of Ohio.

(In the second article, the salaries of judges will be discussed.)

Jury Disagrees In Case Of Man Who Iried Police

AKRON (AP)—The trial of George Hoover, who took the keys to a police cruiser to get even because police once took his, ended in a hung jury.

Several months ago the former Air Force pilot left his car motor running while he drank a cup of coffee in a restaurant. Police took his keys and were going to tow it away, but returned the keys when Hoover showed up.

Last Feb. 15, Hoover tried to get even. He noticed two policemen sitting in the same restaurant drinking coffee while their car's motor

Ohio Liquor Law Chieftain Tightens Enforcement Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A three-pronged instrument designed to lay the groundwork for the "best liquor enforcement program in the United States" rolls into its final stages next week.

It's a long-range program of control, education and cooperation, and one that reaches all the way from the liquor director right down to your neighborhood tavern.

Liquor Director William C. Bryant outlined the plan this way:

1. Strengthening the enforcement division, by (a) training schools for enforcement agents and (b) adding new personnel.

2. Educating the permit holders through simplified explanations of Ohio laws and liquor regulations.

3. Maximum cooperation with local law enforcement officials.

"We can never hope to have enough liquor enforcement agents to police the state," said Bryant. "But by new methods of instruction and refresher courses covering every field, we can have a stronger enforcement division."

A 10-day training school held here in February for 26 men started one phase of the overall program. Chiefs of police, liquor department officials, judges, immigration, narcotics and FBI agents and state highway patrol officers spoke to the enforcement agents. The agents heard experts explain everything from subversive organizations and operations to judo.

Additional meetings along the same lines are in the advanced planning stage.

Free booklets will start going out next week to the more than 23,000 liquor permit holders in Ohio. These are to "educate" the permit holder—to "show him how he can help himself," said Bryant.

The Ohio liquor department, with a 1954 sales record of nearly 191 million dollars, is a complex statewide operation governed by a mass of laws and regulations.

The pamphlet doesn't explain all the laws and regulations. But, as the director explained, it doesn't have to. It is divided into three divisions—one handbook for carry out beer and wine permit holders, another for beer and wine by-the-drink permit holders, and the third for tavern, night club and private clubs.

In 1954, 35 permits were revoked, and the suspension penalties given others totaled 16,665 days—or more than 45 years of lost business!

Year after year, among the 70 or so most common charges against permit holders, the same half-dozen or so violations lead the list. They include:

Sunday sales, sales to minors and employment of minors, unlawful possession and sales, after-hour sales and consumption, gambling devices and allowing gaming and wagering, and insanitary conditions.

"The overwhelming majority of permit holders do not purposely violate the laws," Bryant explained. "Many of them don't understand the laws, and we're trying to tell them in plain language just what the laws are and how they can keep out of trouble."

Another step in this direction is bi-monthly news letters sent out by the department's public relations section. These letters tell of new laws affecting permit holders, court decisions and other important data.

Under the plan to have maximum cooperation with local enforcement agencies, the department has begun training classes in several sections of the state with local police officials.

"We have only 80 enforcement agents," said Bryant. "That figures out to about 3% of a man per county. On the other hand, there are more than 10,000 local law enforcement officers in the state."

"Some police departments have been lax in enforcing liquor regulations. All the money from the sale of permits goes back into cities, villages and townships. That amounts to about 8 million dollars a year."

"With the smallest enforcement unit in Ohio, you might say I am armed with a water pistol while local officials have cannons. All of us must work together for better enforcement."

Local Conservationist Declares Soil Organic Matter Important

Soil organic matter is important, says Don Archer, local soil conservationist for the U. S. Soil Conservation Service. Pickaway County farmers will find it much easier to prepare a good seed bed this spring where the soil contains plenty of organic matter.

According to Archer, such soil will be less subject to puddling and crusting under wet conditions. Also soil moisture will be more easily retained during the summer dry periods where the organic matter content is high.

Sufficient organic matter in the soil will encourage deeper rooting of plants. Soil aeration will be improved and the soil's resistance to erosion increased. In addition, fertilizer and lime will be more effective where the organic matter content is high.

Applying fertilizers to the soil, the conservationist reminds farmers, can never substitute for the lack of sufficient organic matter in the soil any more than organic matter can take the place of fertilizer. Fertilizers help provide essential nutrients while adequate organic matter is necessary to impart desirable physical properties to the soil.

A GOOD ROTATION, containing plenty of fine grass-legume meadow, such case in the two years he has been with the department, but did not say there haven't been any.

Under Eisenhower Administration definition, "security risks" include not only subversives but such characters as pervers, liars and drunks.

Sokolsky's

These Days

"There is growing up over against Communism a fanatical negativism. Totally devoid of a constructive program of action, this negativism is in danger of leading the American mind into a spiritual vacuum. Our national house, cleansed of one demon, would invite by its very emptiness, the entrance of seven others. In the case of a national crisis this emptiness could, in the high sounding name of security, be occupied with ease by a Fascist tyranny."

What is the constructive program? I do not see it in the document. I do not see a statement of fundamental Christian doctrine such as Billy Graham preaches and such as his immense following craves. The clergy who fail to recognize that their function is a particular one, fail to meet the issue of our times which is how to bring God back into the home, back into the school and the workshop, back into the church.

I have come across clergymen who are Humanists. Man is the center of the universe. Man is everything. They avoid mention of God, but they capitalize science. That, of course, is their privilege, but what are they doing in churches and synagogues?

Security Chief Would OK Hiring 'Security Risk'

WASHINGTON (AP)—"If you sometimes have to hire a security risk to get the job done, I'm going to hire him," Scott McLeod chief security officer for the State Department, told a Senate government operations group Friday.

In a discussion of personnel policy, McLeod said security regulations should "not be so secure that we don't get our work done." His theory drew sharp questions from the senators.

He said he couldn't recall any purred outside.

Hoover took the cruiser keys and said he "let them sweat it out for about 10 minutes" before telling the officers he had them. The policemen arrested him.

Hoover testified he "only did what another cop once told me to do." He said a desk sergeant advised him, "anytime you see a car parked with its motor running, it's your duty to shut it off and remove the keys."

Lengthy Ohio Assembly Meet Seems Probable

May 30 Adjournment Target Date Ruled Out By Circumstances

COLUMBUS (AP)—All the brave January talk about a short session of the 101st General Assembly is turning to ashes.

A bare 10 weeks ago, legislators declared their target date for adjournment was Memorial Day, May 30, making it the shortest session in a generation.

Today, if you'd stick a pin in the calendar somewhere between June 15 and Independence Day, you'd likely be closer to reality.

It's all a matter of the "big bill"—the measure which appropriates the money to run the state government for the next two years.

Everything hinges on it.

If the budget is higher than the income the state treasury can reasonably expect, there are only two choices: Cut appropriations or scurry around and find a new tax the Legislature can levy.

If the budget is within bounds, then the Legislature still has the job of fitting things like school and mental health legislation to its purse.

THE HOUSE, where by tradition all appropriations bills are studied first, plans to take a full two months to comb through the appropriations recommended by Gov. Frank J. Lausche, a record total of $381 million. House Finance Committee Chairman J. Frank McClure (R-Ashtand) hopes the "big bill" can clear the House "about the first of May."

If that were all there was to it, the Memorial Day adjournment target would be within easy reach. But the Senate is jealous of its right to give the two-year budget as careful scrutiny as the House.

Says Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem (R-Athens):

"We will need four to six weeks to look over the budget."

Even if other legislative work dovetails perfectly, late June appears to be a likely adjournment time.

But the legislative process never is easy when the Assembly is dominated by one political party and

Youth Is Given Reformatory Term

CLEVELAND (AP)—Archie Faggaini, 20, convicted for first degree manslaughter in the death of his fiancée's father, was sentenced to one to two years in the Mansfield Reformatory yesterday.

Faggaini admitted he shot Aubra Webb, 46, during a quarrel. Webb objected to Faggaini's attentions to his 15-year-old daughter.

the governor's chair is occupied by a man of the opposite political faith. That has been the situation in the last three General Assemblies with Republicans at the legislative helm and Democratic Gov. Lausche as the governor.

The governor, whose party is outnumbered in the Legislature, has difficulty making his opinions on pending legislation felt, even with the help of a particularly vocal group of Assembly cohorts.

That kind of a situation causes delays as the antagonists jockey for position.

The combination of circumstances has done nothing to speed the Assembly session.

Danny's comment: "It was fine."

VIP Treatment Given To Boy, 5

DAYTON (AP)—Wright-Patterson Air Force Base rolled out the VIP treatment for 5-year-old Daniel Pohlman.

Danny saw first hand the landing gear section that fell from test plane through the roof of his home and injured him as he watched television last Jan. 31.

He sat in some of the newest Air Force jet planes and rode in a fire truck. He saw a Russian MIG fighter plane.

At the base hospital, where doctors gave him a checkup, Danny said, "I thought they were going to let me see the airplanes." That brought out the plush treatment.

Danny's comment: "It was fine."

Automobile Thief Gets Prison Term

COLUMBUS (AP)—Federal Judge Mell G. Underwood yesterday sentenced Clarence G. Johnson, 24, East Liverpool, to one year in prison for transporting a stolen automobile in interstate commerce.

FBI officers said Johnson stole a car Nov. 18, 1954, in Parkersburg, W. Va., and drove it to Lowell, Ohio.

Clarence Cole and William Small, Columbus, pleaded innocent to selling heroin. Judge Underwood set trial for the two men for March 21.

Europe leads in coal production, accounting for approximately 43 per cent of world's output.

Retirement Fund For Judges Proposed Before Legislature

Judge Radcliff Says Proposal 'Long Overdue'

Ohio Is One Of Few States In Country Without Pensions

(First of a series)
"A need long overdue" is the way Pickaway County Common Pleas Judge William D. Radcliff gave his approval to a newly proposed retirement act for Ohio judges.
"Ohio is one of the few states in the country which no pension system for its judges," Judge Radcliff pointed out. "Many judges have to continue on the bench beyond retirement age because there is no pension system."
Briefly, the plan introduced to the Ohio legislature is this: a judge, participating in the plan, will contribute 6 per cent of his salary; when he reaches the age of 60 or older and has 12 years of service, he will receive a pension equal to 25 per cent of his salary. Additional judicial service will entitle the judge to a greater annuity, up to 40 per cent of his salary.

UNLIKE MOST of the states where judges are not required to pay into the fund, financing will follow the procedure of the present public employees retirement system. In this, the employer and employee each contribute to the fund.
There is no compulsory retirement. However, eligible disabled judges will be able to retire with reasonable security, according to the plan.

Here is a comparison with other states in relationship to the proposal for Ohio:
California—pension, 50 per cent of last salary; contribution of judges, 2 1/2 per cent.
Connecticut—pension, $10,000; contribution, none.
Georgia—2-3 of last salary; contribution, none.
Illinois—50 per cent of last salary; contribution, 5 per cent.
Louisiana—2-3 of last salary; contribution, none.
Massachusetts—75 per cent of last salary; contribution, none.
Michigan—$4,500; contribution, 5 per cent (maximum, $450).
Ohio's proposal — 25 to 40 per cent of salary; contribution, 6 per cent.
Rhode Island—75 per cent of last salary; contribution, none.
Tennessee—100 per cent of last salary; contribution, none.
Virginia—75 per cent of last salary; contribution, up to 3 per cent.
The retirement proposal is part of a four-point program. The other sections include:
(1) Increases in judges' salaries.
(2) Elimination of the constitutional bar against increasing judges' salaries during a term of office.
(3) Provision for an administrative assistant to the Supreme Court of Ohio.
(In the second article, the salaries of judges will be discussed.)

Jury Disagrees In Case Of Man Who Irked Police

AKRON (AP)—The trial of George Hoover, who took the keys to a police cruiser to get even because police once took his, ended in a hung jury.
Several months ago the former Air Force pilot left his car motor running while he drank a cup of coffee in a restaurant. Police took his keys and were going to tow it away, but returned the keys when Hoover showed up.
Last Feb. 15, Hoover tried to get even. He noticed two policemen sitting in the same restaurant drinking coffee while their car's motor

Ohio Liquor Law Chieftain Tightens Enforcement Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A three-pronged instrument designed to lay the groundwork for the "best liquor enforcement program in the United States" rolls into its final stages next week.
It's a long-range program of control, education and cooperation, and one that reaches all the way from the liquor director right down to your neighborhood tavern.
Liquor Director William C. Bryant outlined the plan this way:
1. Strengthening the enforcement division, by (a) training schools for enforcement agents and (b) adding new personnel.
2. Educating the permit holders through simplified explanations of Ohio laws and liquor regulations.
3. Maximum cooperation with local law enforcement officials.
"We can never hope to have enough liquor enforcement agents to police the state," said Bryant. "But by new methods of instruction and refresher courses covering every field, we can have a stronger enforcement division."
A 10-day training school held here in February for 26 men started one phase of the overall program. Chiefs of police, liquor department officials, judges, immigration, narcotics and FBI agents and state highway patrol officers spoke to the enforcement agents. The agents heard experts explain everything from subversive organizations and operations to judo.

Additional meetings along the same lines are in the advanced planning stage.
Free booklets will start going out next week to the more than 23,000 liquor permit holders in Ohio. These are to "educate" the permit holder—to "show him how he can help himself," said Bryant.
The Ohio liquor department, with a 1954 sales record of nearly 191 million dollars, is a complex statewide operation governed by a mass of laws and regulations.
The pamphlet doesn't explain all the laws and regulations. But, as the director explained, it doesn't have to. It is divided into three divisions—one handbook for carry out beer and wine permit holders, another for beer and wine by-the-drink permit holders, and the third for tavern, night club and private clubs.
In 1954, 35 permits were revoked, and the suspension penalties given others totaled 16,665 days—or more than 45 years of lost business! Year after year, among the 70 or so most common charges against permit holders, the same half-dozen or so violations lead the list. They include:
Sunday sales, sales to minors and employment of minors, unlawful possession and sales, after-hour sales and consumption, gambling devices and allowing gaming and wagering, and insanitary conditions.

"The overwhelming majority of permit holders do not purposely violate the laws," Bryant explained. "Many of them don't understand the laws, and we're trying to tell them in plain language just what the laws are and how they can keep out of trouble."
Another step in this direction is bi-monthly news letters sent out by the department's public relations section. These letters tell of new laws affecting permit holders, court decisions and other important data.
Under the plan to have maximum cooperation with local enforcement agencies, the department has begun training classes in several sections of the state with local police officials.
"We have only 80 enforcement agents," said Bryant. "That figures out to about 7 1/2 of a man per county. On the other hand, there are more than 10,000 local law enforcement officers in the state."
"Some police departments have been lax in enforcing liquor regulations. All the money from the sale of permits goes back into cities, villages and townships. That amounts to about 8 million dollars a year."
"With the smallest enforcement unit in Ohio, you might say I am armed with a water pistol while local officials have cannons. All of us must work together for better enforcement."

Local Conservationist Declares Soil Organic Matter Important

Soil organic matter is important, says Don Archer, local soil conservationist for the U. S. Soil Conservation Service. Pickaway County farmers will find it much easier to prepare a good seed bed this spring where the soil contains plenty of organic matter.
According to Archer, such soil will be less subject to puddling and crusting under wet conditions. Also soil moisture will be more easily retained during the summer dry periods where the organic matter content is high.
Sufficient organic matter in the soil will encourage deeper rooting of plants. Soil aeration will be improved and the soil's resistance to erosion increased. In addition, fertilizer and lime will be more effective where the organic matter content is high.
Applying fertilizers to the soil, the conservationist reminds farmers, can never substitute for the lack of sufficient organic matter in the soil any more than organic matter can take the place of fertilizer. Fertilizers help provide essential nutrients while adequate organic matter is necessary to impart desirable physical properties to the soil.

A GOOD ROTATION, containing plenty of fine grass-legume meadow, such case in the two years he has been with the department, but did not say there haven't been any.
Under Eisenhower Administration definition, "security risks" include not only subversives but such characters as perverts, liars and drunks.

Lengthy Ohio Assembly Meet Seems Probable

May 30 Adjournment Target Date Ruled Out By Circumstances

COLUMBUS (AP)—All the brave January talk about a short session of the 101st General Assembly is turning to ashes.
A bare 10 weeks ago, legislators declared their target date for adjournment was Memorial Day, May 30, making it the shortest session in a generation.
Today, if you'd stick a pin in the calendar somewhere between June 15 and Independence Day, you'd likely be closer to reality.
It's all a matter of the "big bill"—the measure which appropriates the money to run the state government for the next two years.
Everything hinges on it.
If the budget is higher than the income the state treasury can reasonably expect, there are only two choices: Cut appropriations or scurry around and find a new tax the Legislature can levy.
If the budget is within bounds, then the Legislature still has the job of fitting things like school and mental health legislation to its purse.

THE HOUSE, where by tradition all appropriations bills are studied first, plans to take a full two months to comb through the appropriations recommended by Gov. Frank J. Lausche, a record total of $931 million. House Finance Committee Chairman J. Frank McClure (R-Ashland) hopes the "big bill" can clear the House "about the first of May."
If that were all there was to it, the Memorial Day adjournment target would be within easy reach. But the Senate is jealous of its right to give the two-year budget as careful scrutiny as the House.
Says Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem (R-Athens):
"We will need four to six weeks to look over the budget."
Even if other legislative work dovetails perfectly, late June appears to be a likely adjournment time.
But the legislative process never is easy when the Assembly is dominated by one political party and

Youth Is Given Reformatory Term

CLEVELAND (AP)—Archie Faggiani, 20, convicted for first degree manslaughter in the death of his fiancée's father, was sentenced to one to two years in the Mansfield Reformatory yesterday.
Faggiani admitted he shot Aubra Webb, 46, during a quarrel. Webb objected to Faggiani's attentions to his 15-year-old daughter.

the governor's chair is occupied by a man of the opposite political faith. That has been the situation in the last three General Assemblies with Republicans at the legislative helm and Democratic Gov. Lausche as the governor.
The governor, whose party is outnumbered in the Legislature, has difficulty making his opinions on pending legislation felt, even with the help of a particularly vocal group of Assembly cohorts. That kind of a situation causes delays as the antagonists jockey for position.
The combination of circumstances has done nothing to speed the Assembly session.

VIP Treatment Given To Boy, 5

DAYTON (AP)—Wright-Patterson Air Force Base rolled out the VIP treatment for 5-year-old Daniel Pohlman.
Danny saw first hand the landing gear section that fell from test plane through the roof of his home and injured him as he watched television last Jan. 31.
He sat in some of the newest Air Force jet planes and rode in a fire truck. He saw a Russian MIG fighter plane.
At the base hospital, where doctors gave him a checkup, Danny said, "I thought they were going to let me see the airplanes." That brought out the pluck treatment.
Danny's comment: "It was fine."

Automobile Thief Gets Prison Term

COLUMBUS (AP)—Federal Judge Mell G. Underwood yesterday sentenced Clarence G. Johnson, 24, East Liverpool, to one year in prison for transporting a stolen automobile in interstate commerce.
FBI officers said Johnson stole a car Nov. 18, 1954, in Parkersburg, W. Va., and drove it to Lowell, Ohio.
Clarence Cole and William Small, Columbus, pleaded innocent to selling heroin. Judge Underwood set trial for the two men for March 21.
